6-607 Voluntary Separation and Retirement Incentive Program

Revision Dates

11/19/2026, 4/24/2003 (adopted)

A. Authority

Each university and the board office may establish a voluntary separation and retirement incentive program for eligible employees. The president of the university or the Board's Executive Director, as applicable, shall review and approve the program prior to its implementation. The design and duration of such a program, including the definition of eligibility criteria for participation, shall be at the determination of each university or the board office, as applicable, subject to the program being in the best educational interest of the university and the state.

B. Report to the Board

Any implemented voluntary separation and retirement incentive program shall be submitted in an annual report to the Board by October 1 of each year for the preceding fiscal year in which such a plan was implemented.
