

HOW DO I REPORT A CRIME?

If you see a crime in progress or suspicious activity or hear something strange such as a crash, loud bang, or scream, you should immediately contact the SUNO Police Department. Try to provide as much information as possible.

By Telephone:

General information and non-emergencies: 504-286-5290 or 504-286-5291

EMERGENCIES: 504-286-3355 OR 911

By Visiting Police Headquarters:

At the police station, you will be asked to provide details of the crime and make a statement about the facts of the case. You'll receive an incident number that you can quote to find out about the progress of your case and to use if you're making any kind of insurance claim.

Lobby Hours: Monday thru Friday from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

The number to call when the lobby is closed is 504-286-5290 or 504-884-1769.

By completing an online crime report:

Crimes can be reported using our online reporting system anonymously. Visit <http://www.suno.edu/page/report-a-crime>.

WELCOME

FROM YOUR POLICE DEPARTMENT

Welcome to Southern University at New Orleans. SUNO Police is committed to providing and maintaining a safe and secure environment for you to study, work, live and enjoy your college experience at this historic university.

The safety of our community depends on the dedication of the men and women who serve as police officers. They must demonstrate daily, their sensitivity to the particular needs of our community members. We achieve this goal by being approachable, knowledgeable and steadfast in our efforts to provide excellent professional services.

When addressing the issues we face, we encourage a partnership approach from everyone. Yes, we challenge you, as a partner of our great community to join us in partnership to keep a safe campus by reporting any unusual activity you observe. We have excellent working relationships with our law enforcement partners, Orleans Levee District Police, University of New Orleans Police and the New Orleans Police Department.

UNIVERSITY POLICE

AUTHORITY & JURISDICTION

The Southern University at New Orleans (SUNO) Police Department is responsible for investigating all emergencies, suspicious activities, crimes, security concerns, and parking challenges. The goal of every member of your campus police department is to provide for a safe, secure, enjoyable and fulfilling university experience. Police employees are proud to be a part of a university team that works with students, staff and neighboring communities to further improve conditions in and around Southern University at New Orleans.

Your university police officers are commissioned as law enforcement officers by the state of Louisiana under the state of LA. R.S. 17:1805 §1805. Officers must meet all certification standards for police officers in the state of Louisiana. Officers have the power of arrest and are sworn to enforce statutes of Louisiana on university property and public roads passing through or immediately adjoining university property. To maintain their certification, officers must complete annual in-service training, which includes qualifying on all assigned firearms.
