

ARIZONA BOARD OF REGENTS POLICY MANUAL

5-202 Associated Student Organizations

Revision Dates

6/11/2026, 12/14/1985, 3/12/1983 (effective 5/1/1983)

- A. The constitutions of the associated student organizations of the institutions shall not be submitted to the Board for approval, but the Board may, at the request of the president of an institution or their designee, direct the president of the institution or their designee to appoint a committee to review the constitution and determine whether revisions are necessary or desirable. Any proposed changes to previously adopted constitutions shall include a written explanation of the changes in addition to approval by the university president or their designee. The results of the review may be submitted to the Board, if the president, or their designee, and committee so decide, for such action as the Board may deem appropriate.
- B. Associated student organizations of the institutions shall not devote their funds to outside business activities. An associated student organization shall not be organized as a corporation nor become a legal entity separate from the university.
- C. The Board has veto power over any activity of the associated student organization of each institution and such power may be exercised on behalf of the Board by the administration of the institution consistent with state law and ABOR Policy.
- D. In any case where a provision in the constitution, bylaws, regulations, or practice of the associated student organizations conflicts with ABOR Policy, ABOR Policy shall govern.
