5-303 Prohibited Conduct

The following misconduct is subject to disciplinary action:

1. All forms of student academic dishonesty, including cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty and plagiarism.
2. Intentionally or recklessly causing physical harm to any person on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity, or intentionally or recklessly causing reasonable apprehension of such harm.
3. Unauthorized use, possession or storage of any weapon, dangerous instrument, explosive device, torch, device with open flames or fireworks on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity except that subject to A.R.S. § 12-781 and other applicable law, a person may lawfully transport or lawfully store a firearm that is both 1) in the person's locked and privately owned motor vehicle or in a locked compartment on the person's privately owned motorcycle, and 2) not visible from the outside of the motor vehicle or motorcycle, although the board or a university may require that vehicles transporting or storing firearms be parked in alternative parking as described in A.R.S. § 12-781. The possession or use for self-defense of personal safety devices are not prohibited by this section.
4. Initiating or causing to be initiated any intentionally false report, warning or threat of fire, explosion or other emergency on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity.
5. Intentionally or recklessly interfering with normal university or university-sponsored activities, including, but not limited to, studying, teaching, research, university administration, or fire, police or emergency services.
6. Knowingly violating the terms of any disciplinary sanction imposed for an earlier violation of this Code of Conduct.

7. Unauthorized use, possession or distribution or possession for purposes of distribution of any controlled substance or illegal drug on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity.
8. Intentionally or recklessly misusing or damaging fire safety equipment.
9. Intentionally furnishing false information, including false identification, to the university.
10. Forgery, unauthorized alteration or unauthorized use of any university document or instrument of identification.
11. Intentionally and substantially interfering with the freedom of expression of others on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity.
12. Theft or misappropriation of property or of services on the university campus or at a university sponsored activity; known possession of stolen property on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity.
13. Intentionally or recklessly destroying, damaging or misappropriating university property or the property of others on the university campus or at a university-sponsored activity.
14. Failure to comply with the directions of university officials, including campus police officers, acting in good faith and in the performance of their duties.
15. Failure to comply with other published rules and regulations of conduct that may from time to time be adopted by the Board or the university, including, without limitation, restrictions on the sale or possession of alcoholic beverage on the university campus or at university-sponsored activities.
16. Unauthorized presence in or use of the university campus, facilities or property.
