ARTICLE C. PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYEES

A. General

These Conditions of Service for Academic and Service Professionals shall constitute the policy under which Academic and Service professional employees of the Arizona Board of Regents are employed. Each notice of appointment for such employees shall incorporate this policy by reference and shall provide that acceptance of the notice of appointment is recognition that this policy constitutes the conditions of employment. The board shall not be bound by, nor does it adopt or incorporate herein, the interpretations, policies, or recommendations of other organizations, except as approved by the board.

The board is charged by law to exercise control and supervision of the state universities and their property. Any authority delegated by the board is always subject to its ultimate authority. The board retains the right of periodic review and modification of all aspects of governance of the state universities, and the right to enact such rules, regulations, policies, and orders as it deems proper.

It is recognized that individual Academic and Service professional employees may hold multiple appointments. The total of which for all appointments can be no more than one full time equivalent. Other appointments may be to positions subject to conditions other than the Conditions of Service for Academic and Service Professionals.
