Academic professional employees may be offered an appointment for an academic year or for a fiscal year or a portion thereof, or may receive a multiple-year appointment which may be renewed at the end of the appointment period for another multiple-year appointment or for a one-year academic or fiscal year, or any portion thereof. In accordance with procedures adopted by each university or the system office, review for renewal will be conducted during the year prior to the final year. No multiple-year appointment shall become effective until approved by the university President or the President’s designee. There is no limit on the number of renewals. No oral or written communication made prior to or after the execution of a notice of appointment that is inconsistent or in conflict with the Conditions of this policy shall become a part of the conditions of employment.

2. Probationary

   Persons employed under a probationary appointment shall have no expectation of employment beyond the end of the current appointment period, but shall be reviewed for continuing status in accordance with procedures outlined in this document. A person shall hold a probationary appointment for no more than 7 years, including any terminal appointment which a university may choose to provide.

   A person employed under a probationary appointment shall not be subsequently employed under a year-to-year appointment except as permitted under this Policy.
