 - b. Chief of Police – Petty Cash Fund
 - c. Investigations Section Commander – Confidential Fund
 - d. Records/Evidence Custodian – Police Records Receipt Fund
2. The fund custodians shall have the following responsibilities with respect to the funds in which they are the custodian:
 - a. Maintenance of the fund in accordance with all appropriate laws and procedures;
 - b. Proper disbursements and deposits;
 - c. Bookkeeping and banking procedures;
 - d. Direction of a quarterly internal audit of the fund by a third party;
 - e. Maintenance of a file containing copies of all relevant fund transaction documents; and
 - f. Purging of the fund records in accordance with state records retention provisions.
3. At a minimum fund custodians will maintain the following accounting practices:
 - a. Keep a balance sheet, ledger, or other system that identifies initial balance, credits (cash income received), debits (cash disbursed), and the balance on hand (LE 17.4.2a; COM 2.4.6a).
 - b. Keep receipts or documentation for cash received (LE 17.4.2b; COM 2.4.6b).
 - c. Keep records, documentation, receipts or invoices for expenditures (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d).

Rev. 06252020

B. Community Project Fund

1. The Office of Chief of Police will maintain a Community Project Fund, and will receive money for the fund from department fund raising activities and/or community donations. The Office of Chief of Police should obtain a copy of a receipt, or other documentation, for money received for the fund (LE 17.4.2b; COM 2.4.6b).
2. The Community Project Fund will be maintained in a cash bag in a secured safe in the Office of Chief of Police and maintained by the Administrative Assistant. The fund will be used for Police Department community projects and/or local charity needs and be disbursed to department members conducting cash transactions for purchase that pertain to the police department community projects or local charity events.
3. The Chief of Police has the authorization to make expenditures from the fund at his discretion, and the Office of Chief of Police may disburse the money as directed (LE 17.4.2c & e; COM 2.4.6c & e).

		Section: Administration

4. The Administrative Assistant should maintain copies of receipts or other documentation for all monies received or expended for the fund (LE 17.4.2b; COM 2.4.6b).
5. All supporting documents and receipts shall be submitted to the Office of Chief of Police for review and approval. All copies of the donations and expenditures will be maintained in the Fund (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d).
6. The Administrative Assistant shall be responsible for balancing the fund by comparing written receipts with money in the fund by keeping a balance sheet, ledger or other system (LE 17.4.2a; COM 2.4.6f).
7. The Chief of Police will be responsible for conducting a quarterly audit of the Community Project Fund (LE 17.4.2f; COM 2.4.6f).

C. Confidential Fund

1. The Chief of Police will budget for a Confidential Fund annually as part of the Investigative Fees budget line item to support operations related to vice, drugs, and organized crime (LE 43.1.3).
2. The Commander of the Investigation’s Section is authorized to make disbursements of Confidential Fund money of up to $500 without prior authorization. Prior authorization from the Chief of Police is required for disbursements of over $500 (LE 17.4.2c & e; COM 2.4.6c & e).
3. Disbursements from the Confidential Fund may be made for the following purposes:
 - a. Payments that are to made directly to confidential informants;
 - b. Investigative funds for the purchase of illegal drugs, contraband and other criminal evidence.
 - c. Purchases of food and beverages for a confidential informant;
 - d. Expenditures for authorized undercover operations; and
 - e. Flash and front money.
4. Prior to the issuance of any money from the Confidential Fund, an officer shall complete a request to the Investigations Section Commander detailing the plan for the use of the money. The Investigations Section Commander has the sole discretion to approve or deny any request, or request additional information. Upon approval of the request, the Commander may issue Confidential Fund money to any officer (LE 17.4.2e; COM 2.4.6e).
5. Any officer receiving confidential fund money shall sign a receipt upon receiving the money. The officer will be provided a copy of the receipt and the original receipt will be maintained in the Confidential Fund file (LE 17.4.2b; COM 2.4.6b).
6. All officers receiving confidential fund monies shall prepare a written expense report accounting for all monies withdrawn from the fund, as soon as practical. The report should include (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d):

	ANDOVER POLICE DEPARTMENT GENERAL ORDER Title: CASH FUND ACCOUNTS	Number: M1111
		Page: 4 of 5
		Section: Administration

- a. Item or informant control number on which the monies were expended;
 - b. Date and place of expenditure;
 - c. Copies of receipts;
 - d. Type of investigation; and
 - e. Case number, where applicable.
7. The written expense report with all supporting documents and receipts shall be submitted to the Commander of the Investigations Section for review and approval. A copy of the expense report will be maintained in the Confidential Fund File (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d).
 8. For all funds expended, the officer issuing payment shall ensure that an appropriate receipt is obtained, unless such an action would jeopardize a transaction or operation. The fact that the money is going to a confidential informant is not a factor that will jeopardize a transaction or operation and receipts signed by the informant are required for money given to an informant (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d).
 9. All unexpended funds shall be returned to the Confidential Fund custodian by the officer as soon as practical. The fund custodian shall issue the officer a copy of a receipt acknowledging that such funds were re-deposited as unexpended. The original receipt shall be maintained in the confidential fund file (LE 17.4.2d; COM 2.4.6d).
 10. The Confidential Fund custodian shall not be permitted to make disbursements from the fund to herself/himself (LE 17.4.2e; COM 2.4.6e).
 11. Confidential Fund transaction records shall be stored in a secured location within the office of the Investigations Section Commander, and access shall be restricted to the Commander of Investigations and the Chief of Police.
 12. On a quarterly basis, the Operations Commander will conduct an audit of the Confidential Fund, accounting for all expenditures, and submit the report to the Chief of Police. (LE 17.4.2f; COM 2.4.6f).
 13. When the fund is in need of reimbursement, the Commander of Investigations will submit a request for additional money, through the Chief of Police, to the City Finance Director. The request will include an itemized list of expenditures. The expenditures will be deducted from the Investigative Fees budget line item. The itemized list shall be generalized and shall not disclose confidential information.
