Officers arrived and began breaking up several fights. A suspect with a gun was identified and taken into custody. The suspect's vehicle was searched and a total of three handguns, a short barrel assault rifle, and high capacity magazines were recovered. Case AR24-010272

On June 20, 2024, at about 2:48pm, officers were dispatched to the Park Terrace Apartments for a report of three missing children. Their babysitter was caregiving for a client at the apartments, when she noticed the children were no longer playing at the playground. Officers and detectives searched the apartment complex and park extensively but the children were not located.

At Arvada PD's request, the Colorado Bureau of Investigation issued an endangered missing alert for the children. The investigation continued to provide leads, and attempts to locate the children and ongoing interviews with family members continued throughout the night. On the following morning, June 21, around 8:00am, Arvada PD was notified that the children were taken to Denver PD District 4 by a grandparent. The children were picked up by Arvada PD detectives and found to be safe and in good health. The children were later released to a guardian and the case remains under investigation.
