A committee selected by the faculty under procedures determined by the university. One of the responsibilities of this committee is to carry out hearings in accordance with ACD 509-02, "Grievance Policy for Faculty."

Conflict of Commitment

A conflict that occurs when the time or effort that an employee devotes to external activities interferes with the employee's fulfillment of university responsibilities, or when an employee makes unauthorized use of university resources in the course of an external activity.

Continuing Status

The employment status awarded by a president to an academic professional who has demonstrated excellence in job performance, service, and professional development in accordance with criteria established by ASU.

Continuing status for academic professionals creates an expectation of continued employment unless the academic professional is terminated or released in accordance with appropriate policies.

Courtesy Affiliate

A person who is neither a student nor an employee, but is affiliated with ASU in order to receive and provide one or more services.

Day

Calendar day. If the last day of a specific time period is a Saturday, Sunday, university holiday, or during a university break period, the time period is extended to 5:00 p.m. of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, university holiday, or break day. In cases of faculty and other employees appointed on an academic year basis (nine-month basis), day does not include summer, mid-semester, semester, and other similar break periods.

Day-to-Day Assignments

Actions involving assignments on course work, office space, travel, and other benefits.

Denial of Service Attacks

Bombarding a computer or site with mock or excessive traffic.

Department

The term most commonly used to refer to an academic unit, i.e., a sub-unit of a college under the supervision of a chair who reports to a dean. Because of new organizational patterns in the university, such units are also sometimes called schools or divisions. The term "department" may also refer to divisions or schools.

Department Chair

The individual directing a sub-unit of a college and reporting to a dean. References to "department chairs" may also apply to directors of schools or divisions.

Grievant

A current ASU student or employee who files a complaint with a university grievance committee.

Hispanic

A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or some other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

Institutional Base Salary (IBS)

The base annual compensation set by ASU for an individual's appointment, whether that individual's professional effort for ASU is spent on instruction, research, public service, administration, or other activities, and whether that employee is appointed full-time or part-time. IBS excludes income that an individual may be permitted to earn outside of duties to ASU.

In all submissions for funding for sponsored work, IBS is used as the employee's salary. IBS may not be increased as a result of replacing ASU salary funds with grant or contract funds. IBS and FTE (as shown in the payroll system) of an employee will not be increased or decreased during a fiscal year as a result of receipt or loss of salary support from grants, contracts, and other revenues.

IBS may be changed at the beginning of any fiscal year, and may be increased or decreased at that time. During a fiscal year, IBS of an employee generally will not be changed. However, it may be changed in the following limited circumstances:

1. the employee's formal appointment, and required professional effort, is changed from full-time to part-time, from part-time to full-time, or from one required level of part-time effort to another required level of part-time effort
  2. the employee receives an increase or decrease in salary as a result of assuming, or relinquishing, specific academic or administrative duties, e.g., serving as a department chair
  3. the employee receives a cost of living or merit salary adjustment as part of a university-wide adjustment of salaries that occurs during a fiscal year
- or
4. the employee receives a salary increase as a result of a retention or equity adjustment, promotion in rank or position, or change in employment responsibilities.

Intellectual Property

Intangible property rights, including trademark, trade secret, copyright, and patent rights.

Key Decisions

Employment actions involving initial appointment, hire, renewal of appointment, retention, probationary review, annual and other performance evaluations, evaluation for promotion, salary determination, and merit or other salary adjustment.

Educational actions involving instruction include making decisions determining admission, enrollment, assignments, grades, or having a relative as a student in a specific course.

Known

Confirmed.

Legitimate Educational Interest

An interest in an educational record that is justified as part of an ASU employee's responsibility and is consistent with the purpose for which the records, information, or data are maintained. (See ACD 121, "Privacy Rights of Students.")

Major Life Activity

Walking, sitting, standing, lifting, reaching, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, working, caring for one's self, and other similar activities.

Manual Warrant

A manually prepared warrant not produced by the payroll system.

Minority

A person classified as Hispanic, Black, Asian or Pacific Islander, or American Indian or Alaskan Native regardless of the person's citizenship.

Misappropriations

Wrongful uses of assets (e.g., fraud, embezzlement, and conflict of interest decisions that result in financial losses).

Networked Device

Any device connected to the ASU network, e.g., computers, routers, printers, cell phones, copiers, and PDAs such as Blackberries, Android devices, iPhones, etc.

Notice of Appointment

The document that administrators, administrative staff, faculty members, and academic professionals receive each year verifying an appointment for the fiscal year beginning July 1 or for the academic year beginning on or about August 15.

OCR

Office of Civil Rights, United States Department of Education, the federal office authorized to accept, investigate, resolve, or make findings related to complaints of unlawful discrimination in programs receiving federal financial assistance.

OFCCP

Office of University Rights and Responsibilities

This office investigates claims of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation; reports to the Office of General Counsel.

Ombudsperson

Functions as a mediator between a grievant and respondent; a member or appointee of the Ombudspersons Committee.

Other Protected Veteran

A person who served in the military during a war or who served in a campaign or on an expedition for which a campaign badge, a service medal, or an expeditionary medal was awarded.

Parent

A natural parent, adoptive parent, surrogate parent, or stepparent.

Personnel Policies and Procedures for Academic Professionals

Arizona State University Personnel Policies and Procedures for Academic Professionals was published in 1986. Most aspects of this document have now been incorporated in the ACD manual; consequently, the document now consists of photocopies of relevant pages from the ACD manual.

Personnel Policies and Procedures for Faculty

Arizona State University Personnel Policies and Procedures for Faculty was first published in 1982 and revised several times since inception. All aspects of this document have now been incorporated in the ACD manual; consequently, the document now consists of photocopies of the relevant pages from the ACD manual.

Postdoctoral Scholar

An individual who has recently completed his/her doctoral studies and who holds short-term university appointments working under the guidance and direction of a faculty mentor as the individual prepares for a career as an independent scientist and researcher.

President

The president of the appropriate university or the president's designated representative, and the executive director of the central staff.

Probationary Appointments

Faculty and academic professional appointments that will either become appointments with tenure or continuing status within a specified period of time or be terminated.

Professional and Intellectual Freedom

The right and responsibility to exercise judgment within the standards of the employee's profession. Professional and intellectual freedom is defined as "academic freedom" for those employees involved in teaching and/or research.

Proprietary Research

Research sponsored by a nongovernmental entity or an individual that involves restrictions on the distribution or publication of the research findings or results following completion, for a specified period or for indefinite duration.

Pseudonymous Communications

Communication that uses or implies the identity of an individual other than the sender.

Qualified Individual

Individual with a disability who with or without reasonable accommodation can perform the essential job functions of a position at ASU; a student admitted to the university who is eligible to receive services or benefits from ASU; or a member of the public who is eligible to utilize facilities or receive services or benefits from ASU.

Reasonable Accommodation

Change or modification that enables an individual with a disability to enjoy equal opportunity and/or access. Examples: job restructure; flexible work schedule; reassignment to vacant position; reassignment to accessible facility; delivery of service to accessible site; provision or modification of equipment or devices; adjustment or modification of qualifications, criteria, tests, training materials or policies, provided fundamental alteration will not result from the modification; provision of qualified readers or interpreters; reallocation of nonessential (marginal) job functions; unpaid leave.

Note: Reasonable accommodation is required for persons with known disabilities; ASU is not required to provide “best” or “most desired” accommodation but rather accommodation sufficient to meet either employment or accessibility needs. Unit heads or higher-level administrative officers must prepare a written explanation and consult with the ADA coordinator before denying a request for accommodation.

Record of Impairment

A prior physical or mental disorder that no longer exists or qualifies as a disability, but is still classified as a disability. Examples: mistaken classification as “mentally retarded” or “learning disabled.”

Regarded As Having Impairment

An individual who has physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit a major life activity but who is treated as though it does. Examples: individuals with controlled high blood pressure, prior heart ailments, presumptive HIV risk, or disfigurement.

Relative (in ACD 515)

Spouse, parent, grandparent, great-grandparent, sibling, niece, nephew, child, step-child, grandchild, great-grandchild, and close relative by marriage.

Note: The definition of relative in this policy is based on the Arizona Hiring of relative law, Arizona Revised Statutes § 38–481, and may differ from the definition of “relative” in other university policies that are based on other laws or regulations.

Relatives (in ACD 204–08)

Includes spouses, children, grandchildren, parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters (including half brothers and half sisters), brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, mothers-in-law, fathers-in-law, daughters-in-law, and sons-in-law of an employee. (A substantial interest of a relative is considered to be that of an employee.)

Respondent

The individual who is alleged to have violated policy.

Retired Faculty Member or Academic Professional

A faculty member or academic professional who has completed at least five years of continuous, full-time employment in the Arizona university system immediately preceding retirement, who is receiving a distribution under an Arizona university-sponsored retirement program, who is at least 50 years old, and whose employment has not been terminated for cause by the university.

Rule

A statement of general applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy, or describes the procedure to be utilized in implementing law or policy.

Second-Generation Courses

Follow-up courses or workshops modeled after an ASU course and taught by a participant in the ASU course rather than an ASU faculty member (see ACD 120, “Second-Generation’ Credit”).

Smoking

The carrying or using of lighted pipes, cigars, cigarettes, or tobacco in any form.

Special Disabled Veteran

A person entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the Veteran's Administration for disability rated at 30 percent or more, or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.

Special Pay

A manually prepared paycheck not produced by the payroll system.

Supervising Administrator

The administrator who is involved in the day-to-day assignments of staff in the department or unit in which the supervising administrator is employed, e.g., department chair, academic unit coordinator, department director, center head or director. A dean, director, or vice president may be a supervising administrator if one of his or her relatives is employed in the same department or unit in which he or she is employed. A supervising administrator may participate in the day-to-day assignments of a relative in his or her department or unit but may not participate in the key decisions involving his or her relative in the unit.

Supervisory Employee

Any ASU supervisor, director, chair, dean, department head, or other employee who has authority to make or materially influence significant personnel decisions.

Teaching Professor

A nontenured faculty member whose primary responsibility is teaching undergraduate courses or clinical courses (see ACD 505-02, "Faculty Membership, Appointment Categories, Ranks, and Titles").

Teaching or Graduate Assistant

A graduate student who assumes any teaching responsibility, including lecturing, leading discussion groups, serving as assistant to laboratory classes, reading tests or papers, etc. (Research assistants are not included in this definition.)

Tenure

The employment status awarded by the president to a faculty member who has demonstrated excellence in teaching, research, and service in accordance with criteria established by ASU. The status of tenure creates an expectation of continued employment unless the faculty member is terminated or released in accordance with appropriate policies.

Tenure-Eligible

Being on a tenure-eligible line, i.e., having an opportunity to be reviewed for tenure. See "Probationary Appointments."

Theft

Taking and removing personal property with intent to deprive the rightful owner of it (e.g., removal of university property by a university employee that was not entrusted to that employee as part of his or her official responsibilities).

Underutilization

The condition of having fewer women and/or minorities in a particular job group than would reasonably be expected given their availability within the labor force.

Undue Hardship

Accommodation that would be unduly costly, substantial, or disruptive, or that would fundamentally alter the nature or operation of a university department, program, service, or activity.

Note: Consultation with university legal counsel and the ADA coordinator on a determination is required.

University Officer

ASU president, provost, vice provost, vice president.

University Officials

Administrators, department heads, chairs, deans, project directors, managers, assistant managers, and supervisors.

University Staff

University staff is an employment category comprised of non-academic staff and administrators. University staff are employed at will. As an at-will employee, university staff and ASU are entitled to terminate the employment relationship at any time and for any reason except an unlawful one.

Vice President

An ASU vice president or provost.

Vietnam-Era Veteran

A person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released therefrom with other than a dishonorable discharge, or who was discharged or released from active duty for a service-connected disability if any part of such active duty was performed between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, and who was so discharged or released within 48 months preceding an alleged violation of the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act.

White

A person having origins in any of the peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East who is not of Hispanic origin.

Workplace

All property owned, used, leased, or controlled by ASU where university work is performed.
