

Sun Devil Athletics Manual (SDA)

SDA 408: Housing Policy for Student–Athletes

Effective: 11/21/2017

Revised: 08/03/2023

Purpose

To describe the Sun Devil Athletics (SDA) policy on housing for student–athletes

Sources

NCAA Bylaw 13

Departmental Policy

Applicability

All student–athletes, including transfer student–athletes

All full–time, part–time, and voluntary SDA coaches, staff members, and student–assistants

All third party staff members who work for, or report to, SDA staff All donors to SDA

Policy

Every freshman student–athlete is required to live in on-campus university housing administered through the Office of Residential Life.

Following completion of the freshman year, student–athletes are not required to live in on–campus housing.

At the start of the academic year, each student–athlete must report his or her residential address to SDA in the compliance software system. Student-athletes are required to report any change in residence during the year in the compliance software system.

No student–athlete with remaining eligibility may reside in any property owned, leased, or managed by any SDA employee, any family member of the employee, or any representative of the university's athletics interests who has made a donation to SDA or the Sun Devil Club. This provision applies during the academic year as well as the summer break period. An exception will be recognized for a student–athlete to live with his or her parent or legal guardian. Questions about proposed housing arrangements should be brought to the Associate Athletic Director.