

Staff Personnel Manual (SPP)

SPP 313: Human Immunodeficiency Virus Infection

Effective: 2/3/1986

Revised: 12/23/2024

Purpose

To state Arizona State University's policies assuring nondiscriminatory services to persons with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) infection in all university programs and activities

To create an aware, sensitive climate in the campus community that is inclusive of persons with HIV infection and

To reduce the occurrence of HIV infection through active, effective educational programs

Sources

Public Health Service Centers for Disease Control

Arizona Board of Regents Policy Manual - 5-206

American College Health Association

Campus Health Service

Applicability

All employees

Policy

ASU's policy for employees is contained in the Academic Affairs Manual—ACD 406, "Human Immunodeficiency Virus Infection." Employees with HIV infection who are requesting a reasonable accommodation to the university policies and procedures or other accommodations may contact the ADA Coordinator in the Office of Human Resources.