

Student Services Manual (SSM)

SSM 1501–02: Provision of Academic Mentoring

Effective: 11/1/2006

Revised: 3/1/2013

Purpose

To address charges to students for applicable Student Success Center programs

Source

University policy

Policy

Service Fees

All services offered through the Student Success Center are free. These services include, but are not limited to, small-group academic mentoring (enhanced tutoring) in general education subject areas and individual academic mentoring in writing; Structured Learning Assistance, a program that targets high-risk-for-failure courses; academic workshops; and skill development workshops. See the Student Success Center Web site for detailed information.