SuburbanHealth Organization

Basic SHO Partner website language:

ASPIRE INDIANA HEALTH IS PROUD TO BE A PARTNER OF SUBURBAN HEALTH ORGANIZATION (SHO)

Suburban Health Organization (SHO) is a healthcare solutioning organization comprised of independent hospitals and community-based healthcare providers working together to improve access to the highest quality healthcare. Incorporated in 1994, SHO serves its members by providing a collaborative forum to facilitate desired levels of integration and outcomes, while allowing care to remain local and preserving deep-rooted ties to their respective communities. For more than 30 years, this synergetic group has created value by forming shared services, leveraging their combined purchasing power, sharing best practices, and founding innovative solutions to some of healthcare's biggest challenges. Through partnership, we are ensuring that vital, independent community health systems continue to thrive. Together, we are creating healthier communities.

Additional partners include Cameron Memorial Community Hospital, Decatur County Memorial Hospital, Goshen Health, Hancock Health, Hendricks Regional Health, Henry Community Health, Johnson Memorial Health, Logansport Memorial Hospital, Major Health Partners, Margaret Mary Health, Marion Health, Riverview Health, Rush Memorial Hospital, Vantage Healthcare of Ohio, Witham Health Services, Jane Pauley Community Health Center, and Meridian Health Services.

Learn more about how we are building Strength Through Partnership at www.suburbanhealth.com or click here to watch a brief video about SHO.