CITIZEN COMPLAINT FORM

It is the policy of the Brazoria County Sheriff's Office that allegations of employee misconduct or criticism of its services, initiated by a citizen, be thoroughly investigated and promptly adjudicated. Members of the Sheriff's Office and the public they serve should expect no more, and the department offer no less.

Brazoria County Sheriff's Office policy requires citizen complaints to be in writing and signed by a person having direct knowledge of the facts surrounding misconduct, policy violations, and/or criminal acts by a Brazoria County Sheriff's Office employee in order for a formal investigation be conducted. Complaints must be filed within thirty (30) days of the alleged incident.

Citizen complaints shall be accepted by any supervisor or by a member of Professional Standards. All formal complaints accepted will be investigated within an appropriate time frame and all complainants will be notified in writing the disposition of the investigation.
