I. PURPOSE

The Cedar Park Police Department ("Department") expects its members and volunteers to exemplify the core values of the Police Department. Members frequently perform their duties in this manner, exceeding the Department's highest standards and expectations. Additionally, members of the community and other law enforcement organizations often render assistance to the Department and the community on police matters.

II. PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATION OF AWARDS

Any member may nominate any member or non-member for an award when appropriate. Awards may be awarded posthumously. Award nominations should include appropriate documentation that supports the nomination and criteria for the award. The nomination should be provided to the Awards Committee on the approved form, in a timely manner, with all appropriate documentation included.

All award nominations will be reviewed by the Awards Committee. If a committee member is nominated for an award, they will be recused from review. Exceptions may be approved on a case-by-case basis by the committee chair.

The final decision to issue an award will be at the discretion of the Chief of Police or designee. A more appropriate award may be issued in place of the nominated award if deemed necessary or appropriate.

III. RIBBON AWARDS CRITERIA

POLICE CROSS (Memorial Medal) – This medal is issued posthumously to the family of a police officer who lost their life in the performance of their duty under honorable circumstances. Medal, ribbon, plaque, flag

MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD – This is the highest award issued to a living member of the Department. This award is given to an employee for displaying exceptional bravery and courageous action, risking life or bodily injury while in the performance of duty under clearly hazardous and complicated conditions.

To qualify, the recipient must have performed their duties in such a way that they have substantially exceeded the normal requirements assigned to their position; demonstrated initiative while pursuing the achievement of law enforcement goals without regard to personal safety; and have shown exemplary performance in achieving which is either sustained or for a single act. The action(s) contributed to a high degree of success, and the performance was clearly exceptional when compared to the contributions of their peers. Medal, ribbon, plaque

MEDAL OF VALOR AWARD – This award is presented to an employee for heroic achievement in the performance of hazardous duty and the display of courage, meriting honor and recognition to police service. Medal, ribbon with "V" device, plaque

PURPLE HEART AWARD – This award is presented to an employee who is wounded while participating in direct or indirect combat with an armed adversary, or if the member sustains wounds as a result of a felonious assault.

A "wound" is defined as an injury to any part of the body from an outside force or actor. A physical lesion is not required; however, the wound for which the award is made must have required treatment by a medical officer and records of medical treatment for wounds or injuries received in action must have been made a matter of official record. When contemplating an award of this decoration, the key issue that the awards committee must take into consideration is the degree to which the actor caused the injury. The fact that the proposed recipient was participating in direct or indirect combat operations is a necessary prerequisite but is not sole justification for award. The Purple Heart is not awarded for non-combat injuries unless mitigating circumstances exist, at the discretion of the Awards Committee.

The Purple Heart can be awarded in conjunction with other awards. Medal, ribbon, plaque

POLICE COMBAT CROSS AWARD – This award is presented to a police officer who, while in the direct and intelligent performance of police duty, displayed composure and heroism while engaged in personal combat with an armed adversary under circumstances of imminent personal hazard to life.

Documentation and supporting evidence, such as statements from witnesses, supervisors, physicians, etc., may be included to substantiate the award. administration of a drug antidote, the employee may be considered for this award. Medal, ribbon, certificate

TACTICAL EMERGENCY MEDICAL SUPPORT (TEMS) – This award is intended for employees who effectively use training in lifesaving and injury management skills to stabilize victims of accidents and injuries until more highly trained and better equipped emergency response personnel arrive on the scene to take responsibility for victim care and assistance. Ribbon, certificate

At an appropriate time before an awards ceremony, a nomination process will be initiated, allowing employees of the Department to submit written justification for their nominations. Nominations will be collected by a member of the awards committee and a Department-wide vote will be conducted with those who are nominated for each award.

Participation in the Department-wide vote is mandatory, but each ballot will give each employee the opportunity to “abstain” in any category if they wish. The Chief of Police will issue the award at the awards ceremony.

The following categories have been established:

Volunteer of the Year, Civilian of the Year, Dispatcher of the Year, Civilian Supervisor of the Year, Officer of the Year, Investigator of the Year, Sworn Supervisor of the Year – These awards are issued to persons in these positions.

Rookie of the Year – This award is issued to a new officer who has less than two years of Law Enforcement experience. For officers with no prior law enforcement experience, time is calculated from the date they are released from field training. New Officers with two years at other law enforcement agencies are eligible for Officer of the Year.

Top Gun Award - The “Top Gun” firearm proficiency recognition is issued to an officer who maintains the highest overall score during the current calendar year.
