Please read through this information packet completely before submitting an application.

General Information

Effective July 1, 2025, all firearms training certificates submitted for a Colorado Concealed Handgun Permit must be completed through a firearms instructor verified by a Colorado county sheriff's office. To be verified by the El Paso County Sheriff's Office, instructors must meet the following criteria:

- Principal place of firearms training must be located in El Paso County
 - If your training takes place in another county, please contact that county for details about becoming a verified instructor
- Hold a valid Colorado issued CHP – a temporary emergency permit does not qualify
- Certified as a firearms instructor through one of the following entities:
 - A federal, state, county, or municipal law enforcement agency
 - A college or university
 - A nationally recognized organization that customarily offers firearms training
 - A firearms training school

Upon approval, you will receive a Certificate of Verification, and your information will be added to our public list of Verified Instructors. This verification process will be valid for 10 years, provided the instructor's proof of firearms training certification remains valid. To that end, the expiration date which appears on your Certificate of Verification will match the expiration date of the submitted proof of firearms instructor certification. Once an updated firearms certification is received, the instructor will receive an updated Certificate of Verification.

Please note, during this 10-year verification period, it is the responsibility of the instructor to inform the CHP Unit of firearms instructor certification renewals. Failure to do so will result in removal from the public list of Verified Instructors. There is no grace period for expired instructor certifications.

Additionally, if the instructor's principal place of business changes location, please notify the CHP Unit within 30 days of your new business address.

By submitting a complete El Paso County Sheriff's Office Verified Firearms Instructor Application, you agree to release and hold harmless the issuing county sheriff's office, its agencies, elected officials, officers, agents, and employees from any and all liability or claims resulting from verification and issuance of this instructor certification. The issuing County Sheriff's Office, its agencies, elected officials, officers, agents, and employees are not liable for any damages that may result from verification and issuance or denial of this instructor certification.

You further agree and consent to the public posting of your name, contact information, and expiration date of your firearms instructor certification on the El Paso County Sheriff's Office website.
