Chapter 15: RIGHTS OF YOUTH	Effective Date: 12/30/2025
Subject: BASIC RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF YOUTH	Scheduled Review Date: 12/30/2026
Attachments: A – Basic Treatment Standards B – Basic Responsibilities of Youth	Replaces: 8/10/22
	APPROVED:  <hr/> Shawanda Reynolds-Cobb, Commissioner

I. POLICY:

All youth in the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice shall be afforded rights that are clearly defined, including the right to be free from harassment and unlawful discrimination. All youth in the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice shall be given responsibilities that are clearly defined, including the responsibility to refrain from harassing and unlawfully discriminating behavior. All youth shall be informed of their rights and responsibilities upon entry into the facility or program. The basic rights of youth enumerated in this policy shall not be diminished or denied for disciplinary reasons. The Department also recognizes the rights of unborn children as defined in this policy.

II. DEFINITIONS:

Basic Treatment Standards: Just claims that are basic and necessary to the maintenance of a minimum quality of life, and thus are never diminished or denied for disciplinary or punitive reasons.

Bullying: Unwanted, aggressive behavior among school-aged children that involves a real or perceived power imbalance. The behavior is repeated or has the potential to be repeated over time.

Director: For the purposes of this policy, the staff member responsible for the overall operation of a Regional Youth Detention Center (RYDC), Youth Development Campus (YDC), or a Community Services Office (CSO).

Harassment: Unwelcome, unlawful verbal, written, or physical conduct pertaining to an individual's race, color, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions when that conduct:

RIGHTS OF YOUTH	BASIC RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF YOUTH	15.1	2 of 4

- Is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it affects a youth's ability to participate in or benefit from the program or activity or creates an intimidating, hostile, threatening or abusive environment;
- Has the purpose or effect of substantially or unreasonably interfering with a youth's performance; or
- Adversely affects the youth's learning opportunities.

Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to: intimidation or threats of physical violence, physical acts of aggression or assault, demeaning comments, racial jokes or slurs, or other derogatory remarks, or written or visual displays (drawings, graffiti, etc.) expressing derogatory sentiments.

Unborn child: A member of the species Homo sapiens at any stage of development who is carried in the womb.

Unlawful Discrimination: A violation of a person's rights based upon the person's race, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability, political views, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.

III. PROCEDURES:

- A. The Basic Treatment Standards (Attachment A) and Basic Responsibilities of Youth (Attachment B) will be posted in areas easily accessible to youth. This information will also be in the facility's student handbook. The rights of unborn children will be provided to pregnant youth.
- B. During intake/orientation, staff will ensure that youth are informed of how to report unfair treatment, harassment, unlawful discrimination, lack of medical or prenatal care, or bullying. All youth will receive information regarding the grievance process during orientation (see DJJ 15.2, Grievance Process) and in the facility's student handbook (see DJJ 17.2, Youth and Parent Orientation), which includes the right to appeal any decision of the Grievance Officer to the facility Director or Office of the Ombudsman.
- C. Staff will not participate in, encourage, or permit the unlawful discrimination, harassment or bullying of any youth by other youth or staff.
- D. Staff will ensure that youth are afforded all rights outlined in this policy. Staff will report when youth are not afforded their rights. Any violation of youth rights as described within this policy will be reported and processed in accordance with DJJ 8.5, Special Incident Reporting.
- E. Staff who participate in or permit youth or staff to violate the rights of youth will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. (See DJJ 3.80, Employee Progressive Discipline.)
