_____ PROBATION BOOT CAMP

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF _____ COUNTY, GEORGIA

THE STATE OF GEORGIA

VS

CASE NO.: _____

- 1. The above probationer is remanded to the custody and supervision of a Georgia Department of Corrections Probation Boot Camp for a period of 120 days. However, the Department may release the probationer no earlier than 90 days in recognition of excellent behavior, and evidence that the offender has complied with and met all confinement and program requirements imposed by the Court and the Probation Boot Camp. The probationer is to obey any and all rules, regulations and policies which are in effect at any time in the future. During the period of confinement the Department of Corrections may transfer the probationer to another facility in order to provide needed health care or other cause essential to the care and supervision of the detainee, or as necessary for the effective administration and management of its facilities.
- 2. Jurisdiction of the sentencing Court is transferred to the county wherein the Probation Boot Camp is located for the entirety of the probationer's custody, unless the probationer is sentenced under the First Offender Act. Should the probationer's performance be unsatisfactory at any time during the period of confinement in a facility, the probationer may be brought before the Court having jurisdiction for consideration of additional confinement in a probation facility, revocation of probation or any other disposition the Court deems necessary. If probation is revoked or any portion thereof, the probationer will be transferred to the jail of the county from which jurisdiction was transferred, or the original sentencing county, there to serve the period of revocation or to await transfer to any other ordered confinement facility or supervision status as ordered by the Court.
- 3. Rules, regulations and policies of the Probation Boot Camp will be fully explained to the probationer. Any noncompliance will be considered sufficient to warrant disciplinary action up to and including revocation of probation.
- 4. The probationer shall not ingest, consume or otherwise use any alcoholic beverage or any substance prohibited or controlled by any law of the State of Georgia or the United States, except pursuant to physician's prescription; further, the probationer shall readily submit breath, urine, spittle or blood specimens for analysis for the presence of a prohibited drug or alcohol.

5. The probationer shall attend and participate in such counseling, treatment or educational programs as may be directed by Probation Boot Camp staff, and shall abide by all rules, regulations and directions of any such program. The probationer may be required to attain a grade five competency level through participation in education courses while in the center and after release unless exempted by probation staff as described in Georgia law.
6. The probationer will perform all work tasks to which assigned while at the Probation Boot Camp, abiding by all instructions, directives and work area restrictions and boundaries defined by supervising personnel.
7. Limitations on freedom of movement, as defined by Probation Boot Camp staff, both within the Probation Boot Camp and its perimeter, and while participating in work and other activities outside the Probation Boot Camp, will be enforced to the fullest extent allowable by law.
8. Upon successful release, the probationer will arrange for transportation to an approved residence and shall report within 24 hours to his assigned probation officer and will participate in and satisfactorily complete the intense supervision requirements of the Probation Boot Camp program. After the satisfactory completion of an intense supervision period, the probationer will continue under the conditions of the sentence as ordered by the Court. The probationer shall continue participation in any programs as may be directed by probation staff.
