6. Procedures for Religious Accommodations, as outlined in SOP 106.11;
 7. Encouragement of offender involvement in Chaplaincy ministries, religious services and programs; and
 8. Answer questions relative to Chaplaincy ministries, religious services, programs and materials.
- B. During Diagnostics Intake, and as allowed per section C below, an offender may designate their religious preference by completing Attachment 1, Request to Designate/Change Religious Preference Form. Noting a religious preference on this form is for self-identification purposes only and does not bind the Department to accommodate any religious belief or practice, other than respecting the offender's right to believe as they choose. However, the Department may limit participation in religious gatherings, activities, and special religious accommodations to those offenders who designated their religion on the form and who demonstrate a sincerely held religious belief.
- C. Offenders may request to change their religious preference once every six (6) months. To request a change, offenders shall complete a Request to Designate/Change Religious Preference Form, Attachment 1, in the presence of the Facility Chaplain (the form may be forwarded to the offender's Counselor when the Chaplain is not available).
- D. Offenders that would like to change their religious designation more than once in a six (6) month period, must submit a Religious Accommodations Request pursuant to SOP 106.11, Religious Accommodations.
- E. Religious designations and religious accommodations shall be documented in SCRIBE.
- V. Attachments:
Attachment 1, Request to Designate/Change Religious Preference Form
- VI. Record Retention of Forms Relevant to this Policy:
Upon completion, Attachment 1 shall be placed in the offender's institutional file and that file shall be maintained according to the records retention schedule.
