

5000.3C Tuition, Standard Fees, Housing, and Dining Fees Procedure

There are three categories of tuition and fees that are established and assessed: tuition, standard fees, and housing and dining fees. Current rates are available on the Gillette Community College District website.

Tuition Fees

- Tuition is established by the Wyoming Community College Commission.
- Tuition is charged per credit.
- Tuition is refundable according to the Refund Procedure (5000.3F).

Standard Fees

- Standard Fees are established and periodically revised by the District administration.
- The following fees are assessed per credit hour as applicable:
 - Student
 - Institutional
 - Facility/Technology
 - Course
 - Online Course
 - Overload
- The following fees are flat fees and are assessed based on usage, applicable enrollment or specific situation:
 - Program
 - Course
 - Usage
 - Workforce Development and Community Service
 - Conferencing/Agri-Park
 - Placement or Industry Testing
 - Late
 - Non-Sufficient Funds
 - Stop Payment
 - Miscellaneous
 - Unreturned equipment or uniforms
 - Library Fine

Adopted: March 18, 2022

Reviewed:

Revised:

Housing and Dining Fees

- Housing and Dining Fees are charged to students who live on campus. Administration establishes these fee rates annually.
- Special fees that apply only to on-campus residents may include:
 - Laundry
 - Resident Hall Activities
 - Administrative
 - Cancellation