Metra Fare Zones

The map displays various fare zones across the Chicago metropolitan area, each represented by a different color and labeled with its respective code. Major highways are shown as grey lines, and local roads are indicated by thinner lines. The zones include:

- UP-NW: Green, located in the northwest.
- MD-N: Blue, located in the north-central area.
- NCS: Orange, located in the northeast.
- LAKE: Light blue, located along Lake Michigan.
- LAST ARENDSON: Dark blue, located in the far east.
- KANE: Yellow, located in the central-eastern area.
- COOK: Purple, located in the central-western area.
- MD-W: Red, located in the west-central area.
- DUPAGE: Pink, located in the southwest.
- UP-W: Teal, located in the west.
- BNSF: Brown, located in the south-central area.
- WILL: Grey, located in the south.
- HC: Dark red, located in the southeast.
- HI: Light green, located in the south-central area.
- SWS: Dark green, located in the southwest.
- MED: Dark purple, located in the south-central area.
- DOWNTOWN CHICAGO: White, located in the center of the city.

A legend at the bottom left identifies the Metra logo and the color coding for the fare zones.
