

Transportation Training

Transportation Training teaches the job candidate (JC) how to use public mass transit to get to and from work, not how to drive.

IVRS Responsibilities for Transportation Training Services

- Communicate transportation service needs required by JC.
- Participate in scheduled meetings to review outcome of Transportation Training.
- Problem-solve with team to address issues hindering progress as needed.

CRP Responsibilities for Transportation Training Services

- Identify barriers and strategies required for remediation.
- Train JC on how to arrange and communicate with chosen public transit of choice.
- Train JC on appropriate route to successfully navigate transit as demonstrated by independent trials.
- Train JC on safety protocols.
- Share written report on outcomes and recommendations of Transportation Training with IVRS counselor and JC.

Job Candidate Responsibilities for Transportation Training Services

- Work towards employment goals and stay employed.
- Show up for meetings with clean clothes and in good health.
- Let staff know immediately when JC is unable to attend an appointment.
- Participate in the meetings and help plan the steps to success.
- Let the team know what JC's choices are by asking questions and sharing thoughts.
- Complete all the homework, recommendations and suggestions agreed by team.
- Make sure that JC talks with those who are involved in the employment journey.
- Provide any documents that are requested that will help JC reach his/her employment goals.
