RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

CHAPTER 207

207 RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION (SCLEA 6)

207.1 PURPOSE

To develop an efficient, effective, and fair selection process for sworn personnel that results in the appointment of those individuals who best possess the skills, knowledge, and abilities necessary for an effective, respected law enforcement agency.

207.2 POLICY

The Kershaw County Sheriff's Office shall actively recruit individuals who possess the skills, knowledge and abilities necessary for a career as a law enforcement professional for actual and forecasted vacancies. The Department's recruiting goal is to maintain the ethnic and gender composition of sworn officers in approximate proportion to that of the service community.

207.3 RECRUITING ACTIVITIES (SCLEA 6.1)

Department personnel involved in or assigned to recruitment activities shall receive training regarding personnel matters, including Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Plan Department operations.

Recruitment personnel may attend job fairs, career day activities, colleges/universities, and other programs that may provide opportunities to actively recruit qualified applicants.

The Department encourages all employees to participate in recruitment activities, by urging qualified persons with whom they come in contact with, to apply for available positions.

Cultural diversity is very important to law enforcement and the community because the increase in various cultural, racial, and ethnic groups. The Department shall actively pursue minorities and females by attending job fairs and holding career days focused on these groups. This recruitment plan shall be evaluated at least every three (3) years. (SCLEA 6.2)

207.4 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

The Kershaw County Sheriff's Office and the County of Kershaw are Equal Opportunity Employers, and by policy, provide equal opportunity for all applicants for employment, administer hiring, conditions and privileges of employment, compensation, training, upgrading, promotion, transfer, and termination of employment without discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, disability, age, or veteran status.

207.5 JOB ANNOUNCEMENTS (SCLEA 6.3)

The Department shall prepare job announcements and recruitment brochures that provide a description of duties, responsibilities, requisite skills and educational level, and other qualifications. (SCLEA 6.3 a)

Vacancies for positions may be advertised in newspapers, on the Sheriff's Office and Kershaw County websites and/or the Sheriff's Office Facebook page. (SCLEA 6.3 b)

The Department maintains an open application filing system and, therefore, does not require filing deadlines for most vacancies. All employment applications and recruitment advertisements shall indicate that the Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE). (SCLEA 6.3c)

The Department may post announcements with colleges and universities, community service organizations, and professional schools.

207.6 ELEMENTS OF THE SELECTION PROCESS

Each element of the selection process for a specific position shall be administered, scored, evaluated, and interpreted in a uniform manner and shall be identical for all applicants for a given position. (SCLEA 6.6)

The selection process shall only evaluate elements that are job-related. Elements of the selection process for Deputy Sheriff positions are based on requirements for law enforcement certification by the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy as established by the SC Code §23-23-60. (SCLEA 6.5)

THE SELECTION PROCESS RESOURCES

Background Investigations (SCLEA 6.8)

An extensive background investigation will be conducted on all applicants prior to appointment to probationary status in accordance with the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy. The background investigation will include: a criminal history check, driving history audit, credit history review, employment verifications, review of family and biographical data, social media accounts, and personal reference interviews.

Personnel used to conduct background investigations will be trained in collecting required information. Personnel may attend formal training courses in the areas of recruitment, personnel matters, or background investigations. (SCLEA 6.9)

Selection Process Materials (SCLEA 6.10)

The Recruitment Coordinator shall securely store all application packets and selection process materials (including background investigations, medical examinations, psychological examinations, and other personal information) to prevent the disclosure of confidential information. Application packets and selection process materials of applicants selected for hire shall be retained for the duration of employment, plus five (5) years, then destroyed. Application packets and selection process materials of applicants not selected for hire shall be retained for one (1) year after rejection of application, then destroyed. All materials will be destroyed by means of shredding or burning after the retention period.

Use of Polygraph Examinations (SCLEA 6.11 & 6.12)

Polygraph examinations will be used in the selection process and only licensed polygraph examiners will be used for this purpose. The Department will use the polygraph as a tool in the hiring process to assist in informed decision-making as to who would or would not make a valuable addition to this agency as an employee.

Medical and Psychological Examinations (SCLEA 6.13)

A medical and psychological examination will be conducted on each sworn candidate prior to appointment to probationary status. These examinations will be conducted and assessed by qualified professionals.

207.8 PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All new employees, including former employees who have been rehired, will be considered to be on probation for at least the first six (6) months of their employment.

This trial period is essentially an extension of the selection process and is designed to provide the new employee with the opportunity to demonstrate he/she is well-suited for the job and the job is well-suited for the employee.

If the Department concludes during the probationary period that the new employee is not well-suited for the position into which he/she was hired, the employee will be terminated.

The probationary period will end when the Department, no sooner than six (6) months after the employee was hired, evaluates the new employee in writing and authorizes the employee's change in status from "probationary" to "regular."
(SCLEA 6.14)

The probationary period is not to be construed as a minimum guarantee of employment. All employees of the KCSO are employed "at will" which means that both the employee and the Department can terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without notice. The probationary period may be extended or an employee may be returned to a probationary status at any time at the discretion of the Department.
