Scope: College-wide

Reason for Procedure

Group long-term disability insurance coverage is provided as one of the benefits for Board-approved, full-time employees of Kirkwood, unless otherwise stated in the KFA Master Agreement.

The Procedure

Kirkwood provides long-term disability benefits for Board-approved, full-time employees with an elimination period of 90 calendar days. The eligible employee is paid 70 percent of their basic monthly earnings until age 65. Coverage is effective on the first day of month following beginning employment.

Employees covered by a negotiated agreement will receive insurance benefits as provided and outlined within the negotiated Master Contract Agreement.
