Purpose

This policy describes the requirements for hardship licenses, violations of hardship restrictions, ex-offender provisional driver's licenses, and court ordered temporary driving permits for payment of criminal or traffic fines.

Definitions

- Hardship License – A restricted license issued to an individual whose driving privileges are under suspension. This license allows the individual to drive during the period of suspension to earn a livelihood or to maintain the necessities of life. In many instances, the installation of an ignition Interlock device is required.
- Ignition Interlock Device – An in-car breath-alcohol screening device that is connected to the vehicle's engine ignition system and prevents the vehicle from starting if the device detects a blood alcohol level at or above a preset limit.
- Lease and Installation Agreement – Documented proof that the ignition interlock device has been properly leased and installed in a vehicle.
- Livelihood - A means of securing the necessities of life (i.e. job, other source of income, etc.)
- Necessity of Life – The activities necessary to sustain life.
- SR-22 Filing – A certificate of liability insurance from an insurance company authorized to do business in Louisiana. If a vehicle is not owned by the applicant, a non-ownership policy may be issued. An SR-22 binder with the binder clause and number can be accepted in lieu of the original SR-22 filing for ninety (90) days only. An SR-22 filing may be required on a Refusal of a chemical test or Driving While Intoxicated conviction before issuance of a hardship license.
- Ex-Offender - A person released from incarceration, including (but not limited to) any individual who is housed in a federal residential reentry management center, also known as a halfway house
- Pseudo - A record created that contains suspensions or revocations
- CAJUN – Louisiana Department of Corrections program utilized by Louisiana Office of Motor Vehicles to verify eligibility
- Provisional – The type of license being issued to an ex-offender for only one (1) year
- Hardship Restriction Violation – A violation of the restrictions imposed on a driver due to the issuance of a hardship license. Evidence such as an accident, early termination of the ignition interlock device, or a conviction for improper passing, DWI, or speeding, etc., may be used to determine if a driver has violated the restrictions under which the hardship license was issued. If a restriction has been violated, a suspension will be imposed. The type of suspension is dependent upon the reason for the hardship issuance.

- Court Ordered Hardship License

- An economic or medical hardship license may be issued if the individual has petitioned the district court located in the parish in which they reside and the court has ordered the Department to issue the license.
- Any change in the restrictions on a court order during the hardship period would require the individual to petition the court granting approval for the change. Upon receipt of an amended judgment approving the change in restrictions, the hardship will be updated accordingly. The restriction may be updated at any field office.

Requirements:

- Documentation that may be required of issuance of a hardship license:

- SR-22 Filing
- Ignition Interlock Lease and Installation Agreement
- Recommendation letter from Support Services
- Court Order/Judgment

- If driving an employer's vehicle in the scope of employment, the court may allow the individual to operate the company vehicle without the interlock device.
  - Documentation from the court must be provided.
  - The employer must provide a written statement that they (the employer) are aware that the employee is restricted to driving their personal vehicle that is equipped with the interlock device. The statement allows the individual to drive a company vehicle that does not have the interlock installed. However, if the applicant owns the company and drives the company vehicle, the interlock must be installed in that vehicle.
- A hardship license may be issued in a field office. Applicants may contact the Office of Motor Vehicles at (225) 925-6146 to determine specific eligibility and requirements, prior to visiting a field office.
- A hardship license may only be issued for an operator's license (Class E) or chauffer's license (Class D). A hardship may not be issued for a commercial driver's license (CDL) (Classes A, B, or C). To acquire a hardship, a CDL holder must downgrade to a Class E or Class D.
- If licensed and suspended in another state, a hardship license may not be issued. Requirements with the issuing state must be met before a Louisiana license may be issued.
- If a Louisiana resident has a suspended Louisiana record, a hardship license may be issued if the applicable requirements are met.
- Duplicate Hardship License - A copy of the judgment or Application for Restricted Hardship License will be required.
- Expiration of a Hardship License – Visit a field office to renew the hardship license. If the office is closed on the date of expiration, the license may be renewed on the last business day before expiration.
- Violation of Hardship Restrictions – If a hardship restriction violation occurs, penalties may be imposed.
- Approved Interlock Manufacturers and Installers – For a list of approved interlock manufacturers and installers, visit http://dpsweb.dps.louisiana.gov/OMVInterlock.nsf/\$web
