

Louisiana Department of Public Safety
Office of Motor Vehicles
Policy 83.00 Driver's License, ID Card, Employer Identification Number on Motor Vehicle Transactions

Section: 4. Motor Vehicle Registration Requirements

Effective Date: 11/09/1987

Revised Date: 05/20/2024

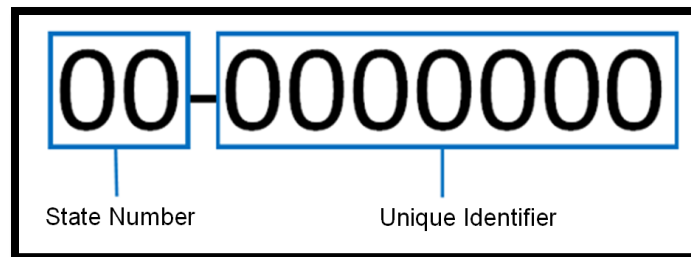

Authority:

R.S. 32:707

Administrative

Definitions:

- Driver's License – A license issued by this state or another state that is evidence of the applicant's ability to operate a motor vehicle.
- Employer Identification Number (EIN) – Similar to a Social Security number, the EIN is used to identify companies.
- Identification Card – A credential issued by this state or another state that serves as an identity document for an individual, but is not evidence of an individual's ability to operate a motor vehicle.

Requirements:

- Applicable paperwork needed to transfer the title of the vehicle
- A driver's license, identification card, or EIN must be provided at time of application for registration.
 - Employer Identification Number - The EIN must be included on the Vehicle Application (DPSMV1799) form whenever a vehicle is being registered in a company's name.
 - Driver's License / Identification Card Number - The driver's license or identification card number must be included on the Vehicle Application (DPSMV1799) form, when a vehicle is titled/registered to an individual or multiple individuals.
- A license plate will not be issued for vehicle registered in the name of an individual until a driver's license or identification card issued by this state or another state is provided.

Related Policies:

Section 4, Policy 2.00, Basic Requirements to Obtain a Certificate of Title

Section 4, Policy 5.00, Name Usage on Vehicle Certificates of Title