Issuing Authority:	Chief of Police Lee Miller

I. POLICY:

The Lincoln Police Department Field Training and Evaluation Program is intended to help newly hired sworn officers apply the agency's various policies and procedures, the laws of Maine, and the ordinances of the town of Lincoln as they perform their policing duties and fulfill their responsibilities to the community. It is also intended to familiarize newly hired officers with the geographical area they will be responsible for policing.

II. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this standard operating procedure is to establish guidelines by which the Field Training and Evaluation Program shall be structured and presented to newly employed officers

III. OBJECTIVE:

- 1) To provide probationary officers with positive "on-street" experience under a controlled and supervised environment by a qualified Field Training Officer.
MLEAP 3.11.A
- 2) The field training phase is intended to give the trainee instruction, guidance, and experience so that he or she may develop good judgment, efficiency, and good habits of conduct and appearance. The field training will consist of three phases:

- a. Phase I consisting of orientation week including department policy and procedure.
- b. Phase II consisting of 17-A statute training, 29-A motor vehicle training, and additional department structure and procedure training.
- c. Phase III is the final phase of field training. During this phase, the trainee will be taking complaints and conducting traffic stops while the FTO is riding along with them. MLEAP 3.11

IV. EVALUATION:

All new hires will be evaluated by the field training officer daily. Evaluations will be scored. A passing score on all evaluations will be acceptable to superior, in accordance with the department adopted San Jose FTO model. All daily observations and weekly observations will be submitted to the FTO Supervisor through PowerReady the FTO Supervisor will submit them through PowerReady to the Chief of Police for final approval.

V. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE:

- 1) The Lincoln Police Department's FTO program will consist of the following organizational structure:
 - a. Chief Law Enforcement Officer – will have the ultimate say in employment and policy making.
 - b. FTO Supervisor – will oversee the FTO program.
 - c. FTO's – will be approved by the Chief Law Enforcement Officer or his/her designee.
