

About Us

The City of Mascotte, established in 1925, is located in Lake County, Florida, just west of Clermont and Groveland. Home to more than 10,000 residents and rapidly expanding, Mascotte spans over 18 square miles of residential and rural communities in one of the fastest-growing counties in the state.

The Mascotte Police Department proudly serves this dynamic community with a growing team of dedicated sworn officers. As the city continues to expand, the department remains committed to innovation—embracing advanced training methods and leveraging the latest technology in law enforcement.

By employing officers from diverse backgrounds, experiences, and educational paths, the Mascotte Police Department delivers the high level of professionalism and service that its citizens both expect and deserve.
