6.1.44 Procedures to Follow Relating to Uniforms and Appearance

I. Purpose

To provide the members of the Northern Lancaster County Regional Police Department with a clear understanding of the manner and methods employed in wearing the official uniform of the agency, and appearance standards associated with departmental personnel.

II. Policy

Agency members shall adhere to the requirements specified in this policy regarding procedures to follow relating to uniforms and appearance.

III. Procedures

- A. Members of the Department shall, while on duty, maintain a presentable appearance; uniform shall be buttoned or zipped, as required, hats shall be worn (except as outlined in this policy), uniforms shall be clean and pressed; shoes shall be shined, and all equipment shall be in presentable condition. Hair shall be neatly trimmed and shall not extend below the collar line; sideburns below the earlobe are not permitted; dark glasses should generally not be worn inside*; male officers may grow a mustache.

B. Quartermaster: A Quartermaster will be designated by the Chief of Police. (S.O. 6.1.44C)

1. Issuance: The Quartermaster is responsible for the inventory and issuance of NLCRPD uniforms, gear, and associated equipment or supplies.
2. Requests by employees: Any requests for agency-issued equipment, gear, or uniforms shall be forwarded to the Quartermaster for review, approval, issuance, and associated documentation.
3. Purchasing: The Quartermaster shall correspond with the Chief of Police or designee for all purchases outside of current inventories.
4. Receiving: The Quartermaster shall be responsible for receiving and inventorying any agency-issued gear, equipment, and uniforms on receipt of the order and when an employee resigns or is no longer employed by the agency.

C. Grooming Standards

1. Male Officers –The hair shall be neatly trimmed at all times. The hair shall be above the collar and shall not extend over the ears. Sideburns shall be neatly trimmed and not extend below the ear lobe. A mustache is permitted. The mustache shall not extend beyond the corners of the mouth and shall not extend beyond the top of the upper lip. No other facial hair is permitted unless specifically authorized by the Chief of Police for investigative purposes.
2. Make-up is prohibited for male officers while on duty.
3. Facial hair other than the descriptions above, is prohibited, including beards and goatees.
4. Female Officers –The hair shall be worn above the collar. It shall be styled in such a manner that it does not interfere with the proper wearing of the uniform hat. Make-up, if worn, shall be of a neutral or subdued color. Brightly colored or black lipstick is prohibited.
5. Employees are prohibited from hair dyes that may shock the conscience. Hair colors should be restricted to those found in a natural spectrum of hair coloring or coloring variations.

D. Body Art - While on duty or representing the Department, all members are prohibited from displaying any body art (tattoos), intentional scarring, mutilation (to include gauges), or dental ornamentation that is visible without modifications while wearing any uniform of the NLCRPD as outlined in this policy. (This excludes body art in place before the date of the original issuance of the order (01/01/2012) or on agency members hired before 01/01/2012.)

1. Officers shall not wear body piercing of any type while on duty or while making an appearance of any type as a representative of the agency.
2. Officers may not have any body piercing of any type which would shock the conscience in plain view, while on duty, or while making an appearance as a representative of the agency.
3. Officers shall not have any visible tattoos extending beyond the areas covered by the agency uniform. A solid black or tan “sleeve” may be worn over the body art when wearing the summer B uniform.
 1. Exception: “Wedding ring” tattoos or other similar markings may be considered reasonable exceptions as approved by the Chief of Police.
4. Officers shall not have any tattoos visible which would shock the conscience.
5. Use of any device designed to stretch or modify the ear lobe, is expressly prohibited unless the device is used as part of a treatment regimen by a licensed medical practitioner.
6. Wearing of tongue studs, or ornamental rings on the face to include the nose and eyebrow, while on duty is expressly prohibited.
7. Departmental employees are prohibited from techniques that may split the tongue to have a “serpent look” used for strictly cosmetic purposes.

E. Jewelry

1. The wearing of jewelry can create safety concerns. Items such as bracelets, necklaces, earrings, and rings should be worn with safety considerations foremost in mind.
2. Male officers are expressly prohibited from wearing ear piercings while on an on-duty status or while making an appearance as a representative of the agency.
3. Female officers shall wear only small studs or loop earrings that pose no threat to personal safety. At no time will earrings be worn that extend beyond or hang from the ear lobe.
4. Officers shall be permitted to wear a necklace representative of their faith. It shall not be visible while in uniform. Officers shall also be permitted to wear a medical ID bracelet or necklace, which is intended to alert medical personnel of an existing medical condition.

5. The Department is not responsible for the replacement or repair of wristwatches, rings, and/or other personal items that may be worn in violation of this order while on duty outside of the corners of the CBA.
6. For purposes related to the health and safety of the officer, there shall be no wearing of body piercings or other items while in on-duty status. This is to allow for emergency medical care and for other highly urgent and exigent medical treatments.

F. Uniforms shall be complete; no partial equipment or uniforms are permitted. During the summer months, a member may wear a short-sleeved shirt without a tie. When wearing the long-sleeved shirt, the uniform tie, or approved mock-style shirt, shall be worn. In addition, tee shirts shall be visible when short-sleeved tieless shirts are worn. Tee shirts shall be a solid white for the white uniform shift for staff (LT or above), or solid black for the tan uniform shirt.

G. Shields (Badges) are to be worn on the outermost garment at all times while in uniform. While not in uniform, and during the course of an arrest, the shield should be displayed, clearly identifying the member as a police officer. Members shall carry their identification card(s) at all times.

1. Retirement: Badges may be issued to retirees after completion of service with restrictions (See S.O.6.1.44A)
