Re: 2022 Internal Affairs Summary

RIPAC 5.5/5.7 – Complaint Investigations & Notification to the Chief of Police

Between January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2022, the North Kingstown Police Department's Internal Affairs Division investigated and documented five (5) complaints, including anonymous complaints, whether internally generated or externally received, of misconduct or illegal behavior against the agency or a member. This complaint of misconduct was investigated thoroughly to ensure the integrity and professionalism of the agency's operations and personnel.

The five (5) complaints were all citizen initiated and from the same resident citizen. The complaints were regarding Dereliction of Duty and Discourtesy. One of the complaints for Discourtesy was deemed Substantiated. The complainant was notified via USPS mail of the outcome of all the investigations.

The following chart depicts; the month when complaints were received, by whom they were initiated by, and whether they were substantiated or not.

MONTH INVESTIGATION BEGAN	SUBSTANTIATED	UNSUBSTANTIATED	GENERATED WITHIN DEPARTMENT	CITIZEN'S COMPLAINT
