

CITY OF OAKLAND

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

SUBJECT	Equal Employment Opportunity/Anti-Discrimination/Non-Harassment Policy and Complaint Procedure	NUMBER	71
REFERENCE		EFFECTIVE	March 9, 2020
SUPERSEDE	AI 70, AI 71 dated 1/1/03, AI 115, AI 116, AI 126, AI 71 dated 4/1/04 AI 71 dated 1/1/08

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Administrative Instruction is: (1) to outline the City of Oakland's Policy, standards, requirements, complaint procedures and disciplinary guidelines regarding inappropriate and/or unprofessional conduct that could potentially rise to the level of discrimination and/or harassment; and (2) set out complaint and investigation procedures for all employees and job applicants who believe they have been subjected to inappropriate workplace conduct based on their protected status.

II. POLICY

A. Unlawful discrimination, harassment or other inappropriate conduct based on protected status

The City of Oakland (City) is committed to equal employment opportunity and to ensuring that all employees have a work environment free of conduct that could be considered discriminatory or harassing. The City strictly prohibits any form of unlawful employment discrimination and/or harassment or other inappropriate conduct based on protected status. Protected statuses include: race, color, ancestry, national origin (including immigration status, cultural or linguistic characteristics), religion, creed (including religious dress and grooming practices), age (over 40), disability (including both mental and physical), sex (including pregnancy or medical conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth or breastfeeding), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), genetic information (including family medical history), marital status, military and veteran status, and other characteristic protected by law. The City will not tolerate any harassing or discriminatory conduct on these bases, nor retaliation for opposing illegal discrimination or harassment related to one of these categories.

Also, the City will not tolerate any inappropriate conduct that affects tangible job benefits, that unreasonably interferes with any individual's work performance, or that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment. The City does not allow anyone, including any director, manager, supervisor, co-worker, vendor, elected official, or commissioner, to unlawfully harass or discriminate against City employees or applicants for employment. Harassment and discrimination is also prohibited against any person providing services to or working with the City pursuant to a contract. The City will take prompt and effective remedial action within its power upon discovery of such conduct.

1. Discrimination or harassment based on a perception or belief that a person is a member of protected group or a person's association with a protected group

The City prohibits discrimination and/or harassment based on a perception that a person has any of the above characteristics, or that the person is associated with a person who has, or is perceived to have, any of the above characteristics. Harassment and/or discrimination based on these characteristics (whether actual, perceived or by association) is prohibited.

2. Retaliation against a person based on their expressed concern about unlawful discrimination or harassment or for having filed a complaint or participated in a discrimination or harassment investigation

The City prohibits retaliation against anyone who has expressed a good faith concern about unlawful discrimination or harassment or who has filed a complaint or participated in an investigation of any such complaint. The City will not tolerate retaliatory conduct on these bases.

B. Who and What the Policy Covers

Who the Policy Covers

This Policy applies to all full-time employees, part-time employees, temporary employees, and job applicants. The Policy also applies to any person providing services to or working with the City pursuant to a contract. For the purpose of this Policy only, the term "employees" includes unpaid interns and volunteers.

Where the Policy Applies

This Policy applies to all City locations, as well as to all employer-sponsored activities, such as training, social or other events. This Policy also applies to non-City locations (including locations where no employer-sponsored activity is taking place) and off-duty conduct if a reasonable connection or impact to the workplace can be shown. For example, a City employee sending a racist email from home to another City employee violates this Policy. Such conduct does not fall outside of the Policy just because both employees were not on-duty.

What the Policy Covers

The Policy covers all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to: recruitment, hiring, promotion, termination, discipline, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, position classification, training, compensation and benefits.

The Policy covers communications sent on personal devices. For example, a City employee sending harassing text messages to another City employee violates the Policy even if the messages were sent and received on personal devices.

This Policy prohibits not only unlawful harassment, but also any conduct that is unprofessional, disrespectful or inappropriate based on a protected status/characteristic, whether or not it rises to the level of legally prohibited harassment and whether or not the conduct is to a person in a protected category. For example, making racist statements to a group of employees who are not members of that race still violates the Policy. It is the City's goal to prevent the occurrence of harassing activity and to stop harassing conduct when it occurs and before it becomes a violation of law. This Policy therefore prohibits activities based on protected status that are inappropriate whether or not they are sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive to constitute unlawful harassment.

Additionally, the City wishes to note that inappropriate behavior is only workplace harassment when it is based on membership in a protected category (e.g., race, sex/gender, etc.). For example, even though employees are often offended when a manager yells at them, yelling itself is not workplace harassment unless the yelling can be linked to a protected status (e.g., yelling racist names, only yelling at women, etc.). While such behavior may not violate this Policy, as it is not based on a protected characteristic, it is the responsibility of all City employees to behave in a professional and respectful manner in accordance with the City's Code of Conduct Policy – Administrative Instruction 596, so as to create a comfortable working environment for everyone.

This Policy will be interpreted in a manner that is consistent with federal and state laws regarding harassment, such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, California's Fair Employment and Housing Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. A determination as to whether a violation of this Policy has occurred will be evaluated on a case by case basis with consideration for the context and circumstances of the alleged conduct.

III. DEFINITIONS AND APPLICATIONS

A. Harassing Conduct

Prohibited behavior may include, but is not limited to: verbal, visual, physical or any other type of conduct that denigrates, demeans, or shows hostility or aversion towards an employee because of their membership in a protected group.
