STATE HEARING

If you still do not agree with this decision, you can ask for a State Hearing and a judge will review your case. You will not have to pay for a State Hearing.

Normally, you have 120 days from the date of Notice of Appeal Resolution (NAR) to ask for a State Hearing. However, because of the national emergency due to coronavirus (COVID-19), you have 240 days from the date of the NAR to ask for a hearing. We will update this notice when the timeframe changes back to 120 days. However, if your health plan continued to provide you with the disputed service(s) (Aid Paid Pending) during the health plan's appeal process and you want the service(s) to continue until there is a decision on your State Hearing, you must request a State Hearing within 10 days of this Notice of Appeal Resolution letter. Even though your health plan must give you Aid Paid Pending when you ask for a State Hearing in this way, you should let your health plan know you want to get Aid Paid Pending until your State Hearing is decided. You should contact Partnership HealthPlan of California (PHC) between 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. by calling (800) 863-4155. If you cannot hear or speak well, please call (800) 735-2929 or California Relay 711.

You can ask for a State Hearing in the following ways:

A State Hearing Form is included with this letter. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, Social Security Number and/or CIN number, and the reason you want a State Hearing. If someone is helping you ask for a State Hearing, add their name, address, and telephone number to the form or letter. If you need an interpreter, tell the State Hearings Division what language you speak. You will not have to pay for an interpreter. The State Hearings Division will get you one. If you have a disability, the State Hearings Division can get you special accommodations free of charge to help you participate in the hearing.

Please include information about your disability and the accommodation you need.

After you ask for a State Hearing, it could take up to 90 days to decide your case and send you an answer. If you think waiting that long will hurt your health, you might be able to get an answer within 3 days. Ask your doctor or health plan to write a letter for you. The letter must explain in detail how waiting for up to 90 days for your case to be decided will seriously harm your life, your health, or your ability to attain, maintain, or regain maximum function. Then, make sure you ask for an Expedited Hearing and provide the letter with your request for a hearing.

You may speak at the State Hearing yourself. Or, someone like a relative, friend, advocate, doctor, or attorney can speak for you. If you want another person to speak for you, then you must tell the State Hearings Division that the person is allowed to speak for you. This person is called an Authorized Representative.
