23.8 Industrial Leave

- A. Employees on industrial leave are assigned to their home and will be considered to have the same duty hours and days off during the first seven days following injury as they had when injured. After the first seven days, the employee may be reassigned to new duty days and days off.
- B. Written documentation from a physician is necessary in order for time lost due to an industrial injury or occupational disease to be treated as compensable time. Any on duty time that is spent for follow-up physician and therapy appointments shall be noted on the employee's time worked record as industrial time.
