- 6.1.1.1. Verbal warnings or directives which do not constitute discipline;

- 6.1.2.4. Discharge.

6.2. Administrative Leave

Unlike a disciplinary suspension under Section 6.1.2.2. above, placement on paid administrative leave from duties during the pendency of an active review of allegations of conduct warranting discipline is not deemed to be discipline under Section 6.1.2.

The decision to place an employee on paid administrative leave pursuant to this section does not require compliance with Stage One notice procedures set forth in Section 6.3.2.2. below.

The administration may withhold pay during the pendency of an active review of conduct warranting discipline where the circumstances that trigger administrative leave implicate public trust in ways that would preclude continued discharge of assigned responsibilities.

6.3. Procedures

6.3.1. Corrective Action Procedures

Corrective action may be imposed immediately, upon communication of the corrective action to the employee, pursuant to the discretion of an employee's supervisor. Employees who have had corrective action imposed may request review of the action through the grievance procedure set forth in Section 7 below, subject to the limitation(s) of Section 7.2.3.4.1.

6.3.2. Disciplinary Procedures

6.3.2.1. Legal Review Panel

Prior to providing written notice pursuant to Section 6.3.2.2 below for discipline that would result in demotion or discharge, the administration shall submit the intended discipline, the allegations supporting the intended discipline, and any evidence or documentation upon which the intended discipline is based to an internal legal review panel appointed by the Board of Regent's Executive Director, or as delegated, the institutional President. The legal review panel will be comprised of legal counsel, a human resources representative of the Board of Regents or institution, and an additional representative designated by the panel's appointing authority. The panel will conduct a review of the intended discipline and supporting materials, and provide a recommendation to the administrator for consideration. Employees may be placed on paid administrative leave during the legal panel review process in accordance with applicable law and policies. Any review and recommendation of the legal review panel shall be conducted under attorney-client privilege and shall not be included in the supporting materials provided to the employee, made part of the employee's personnel file, or otherwise disclosed or shared without the express written permission of the Board of Regents or its authorized designee. The legal review panel may be requested to review other employment actions; however, the legal review panel will not be used for discipline resulting from sexual harassment proceedings conducted in accordance with BOR Policy 1.4.1.

6.3.2.2. Stage One: Pre-Discipline Conference

If the administration determines that there are reasonable grounds for discipline, the employee will be furnished written notice of the allegations supporting the determination, an explanation of the evidence relied upon by the administration, and the intended disciplinary action. The matter will be discussed with the employee at a personal conference which will be held at a time not sooner than fourteen (14) calendar days, nor later than twenty-one (21) calendar days from the date of the transmission of the written notice, unless otherwise agreed by the employee and the administration. The employee may bring to this conference a representative chosen by the employee. At the close of the personal conference, or within seven (7) calendar days thereafter, the administration will notify the employee whether it will discipline the employee, how and the effective date of the discipline.

6.3.2.3. Stage Two: Post-Discipline Hearing Rights

Employees who have been disciplined after completion of the Stage One conference may appeal the action through the grievance procedure set forth in Section 7 below. Any grievance appeal under this section will begin at Step Two in Section 7.2.2.

7. Grievance Procedures

The grievance procedure provides a just and equitable method for resolution of grievances that affect the terms and conditions of employment.

7.1. General Provisions

7.1.1. Grievance procedures are available to NFE employees.

7.1.2. No offer of settlement of a grievance by either party shall be admissible as evidence in later grievance proceedings or elsewhere.

- 7.1.3. No settlement of a grievance shall constitute a binding precedent in the settlement of similar grievances.
- 7.1.4. If the grievant fails to act within the time limits provided herein, the administration will have no obligation to process the grievance and it will be deemed withdrawn.
 - 7.1.4.1. The parties to any grievance may, by mutual written agreement, waive the time limits provided herein.
- 7.1.5. If the administration fails to act in time, the grievant may proceed to the next review level by filing the grievance with the appropriate official and within the timeframe required under Section 7.2 and any subsequently issued decision on the matter at the bypassed level will be void.
- 7.1.6. If the grievant fails to state a grievance as defined in Section B.3 in any filing under the grievance procedure, the administration will have no obligation to process the filing beyond providing notice to the grievant within five (5) days of receipt of the filing that the filing failed to meet the definition of a grievance, after which the filing will be dismissed.
- 7.1.7. The Board, administration, or supervisors shall not retaliate against any non-faculty exempt employee for filing or participating in a grievance.
- 7.1.8. Employees who voluntarily terminate their employment shall have their grievances under this policy immediately withdrawn and shall not benefit by any later settlement of an individual or group grievance.
- 7.1.9. Grievance records shall not be maintained in the individual's personnel files but shall be maintained in a separate file.
- 7.1.10. Required written notice may be sent via the Postal Service, delivered by hand, or sent through electronic mail.
 - 7.1.10.1. Notice will be effective on the date postmarked by the Postal Service, on the date delivered by hand or on the date sent electronically, provided that, where disruption of institutional electronic communications systems interferes with delivery of an electronic notice, the effective date of notices sent electronically will be delayed until service has been restored.
- 7.1.11. Grievances will be filed with the lowest administrative level having the authority to dispose of the grievance. If the office of the President, Executive Director, or Vice President represents the lowest administrative level having authority to dispose of the grievance, then the grievance will be filed at Step 2, Step 3 or Step 4 as applicable.
- 7.1.12. Throughout the grievance process, the grievant shall include copies of the original grievance and all responses and decisions from prior steps, if any.
- 7.1.13. Throughout each step of the grievance process, any decision issued by the institution shall be provided simultaneously to the grievant and each administrator who issued a decision in prior steps, if any. All decisions issued by the institution in response to a grievance shall include a statement of findings and conclusions supporting the decision.

7.1.14. Informal resolution may be attempted by the parties to a grievance at any point during the grievance procedure. If a grievance is resolved informally, the institution will be under no obligation to proceed further with the grievance.

7.1.15. If the deadline for any action(s) set forth herein falls on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or any other day in which the institution's administrative offices are closed, the timeframe for the action shall continue to run until the end of the first day thereafter when the institution's administrative offices are open.

7.2. Grievance Procedures

7.2.4.2. For grievances not governed by Section 7.2.4.1.1 above, the Executive Director shall select a hearing examiner within fourteen (14) days following receipt of the grievance.
