

Q. I am a local firearms instructor and want to be listed as a Missouri CCW instructor on the St. Louis County database for St. Louis County residents only, what do I do?

A. You can pre-register with our office at no cost, however you will need to provide the following: proof of Firearms Safety Instructor as listed in MO Statute 571.111.1, clear copy of government issued ID, and contact information (name, address, phone number).

Q. How do I find a qualified firearms instructor to undergo my required training?

A. Refer to your local gun range to find eligible instructors who will comply with training requirements found in RsMo 571.111.

Q. What do I need to renew my permit?

A. You must be present and provide your current CCW and government issued ID. Cost is $40.

Q. Can I renew my permit early?

A. Yes

Q. I'm late renewing, do I have to start over?

A. It depends. Renewal is $40, but if you are a day late to renew, you must pay an additional late fee of $10 per month for each month the permit is expired. However, if you are more than 6 months late, you will have to redo the application process.

Q. I currently have a Missouri CCW permit and moved from another county to St. Louis, what do I do?

A. You must notify the new county in which you moved to. Also, within 30 days of moving you will need to appear in person with your proof of county address and CCW permit so we can transfer it. The fee for transfers is $10.

Q. Do I need to register my gun?

A. No, the state of Missouri no longer registers guns. However, we do suggest if you sell or transfer your gun that you keep proof of ownership and refer to your local gun dealer for further advice.
