What is the Welfare Association?

By virtue of their employment with the Department, all employees are members of the Welfare Association.

The Welfare Association is a not-for-profit organization that acts as a support alliance for members and their families in times of need.

Members of the Association's Board of Trustees are elected by the employees and, with the approval of the Chief of Police, work to develop appropriate guidelines for the impartial distribution of funds to employees and their families in times of need. The trustees also oversee the management of available resources and organize or direct various fundraising activities.

How is the Welfare Association Financially Supported?

- The Department's annual Memorial Golf Tournament.
- Private donations from citizens, businesses, as well as employees and their families.
- Estate bequests.
- Profits from the sale of Police Department memorabilia, apparel and gift accessories from the Association's online store at: slcpdwelfarestore.com/.

What Types of Activities Does the Welfare Association Support?

- Financially assists families of employees who are injured or killed in the line of duty.
- Provides financial assistance to families of employees hospitalized for a duty-related illness or injury.
- Financially assists employees who are experiencing large medical expenses as a result of a debilitating illness or injury, or other catastrophic circumstances drastically affecting them and their families.
- Presents several $1,000 educational scholarships to dependent children of employees who are in need of financial assistance.
- Sends a gift to the parents of newborn or newly adopted children of employees .
- Provides contributions to other not-for-profit organizations which provide support to family members of injured or deceased employees.
- Underwrites a portion of the cost of the annual Memorial Breakfast held in honor of County police officers who have died in the line of duty.
- Provides support and funds to the Department's nationally recognized Pipes and Drums and other ancillary Department groups.

- Provides annual gravesite memorials for officers who have died in the line of duty.
- Assumes the cost for immediate family members of employees who have been killed or die in the line of duty to attend National Police Week in Washington, D.C.

How Can You Help?

If you are interested in the work of the Welfare Association and would like to help, here's how:

- Make a personal or corporate donation to the Welfare Association. Donations can also be made at slcpdwelfarestore.com.
- Make a donation or bequest to the Welfare Association, with instructions to apply the proceeds as a limited scholarship while funding remains.
- Encourage others to become involved in this worthwhile organization by supporting or participating in the Welfare Association fundraising activities, such as the Annual Memorial Golf Tournament.
