

2.355 BURGLARY

- A. Initial reports will contain all pertinent information that includes, but is not limited to the:
1. Modus operandi;
 2. Point of entry and exit;
 3. Type and manner of force used;
 4. Clear description of how the area was physically secured or not secured;
 5. Description of all items stolen;
 6. Description and disposition of all evidence;
 7. Area canvassing performed to include personal identification information and addresses of all persons contacted and any information they provided;
 8. Suspect information;
 9. NCIC requests or entries; and
 10. Investigative steps and results.
- B. See also Burglary Investigation Checklist (UPO.091.D).