

Texas Woman's University University Regulation and Procedure

Regulation and Procedure Name: Alcohol Use

Regulation and Procedure
Number: URP: 01.250

Policy Owner: Finance and Administration and Student Life

POLICY STATEMENT

In the summer of 1985, the Texas legislature passed Senate Bill 21 that changed the legal drinking age from 19 to 21 effective September 1, 1986. Specifically, the Texas law prohibits the purchase, consumption, and/or possession of alcoholic beverages by anyone under the age of 21. In addition to Texas law, Texas Woman's University must comply with the federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989.

It is the intent of the University to establish practices and procedures which discourage irresponsible and unlawful uses of alcoholic beverages and ensure compliance with local, state, and federal laws. While the decision to use or not to use alcoholic beverages is a matter of individual choice among persons of lawful age under state statutes, the University will attempt to encourage an environment where individual choice is coupled with responsible behavior and respect for the rights of others. This will be accomplished by supporting the responsible and legal use of alcoholic beverages and by educating the students about the effects of misuse and abuse of alcohol.

In regard to the use of alcoholic beverages, the University community should be aware that:

Residence hall staff members must, if they discover under-age drinking, take immediate steps to stop the activity, including presiding over the cessation of drinking and the disposal of the alcoholic beverages.

Student organizations, their officers, and advisors are liable if under-age students obtain alcoholic beverages at an organization sponsored event regardless of where the event is held.

Provision and/or distribution of or failure to control access to alcoholic beverages to under-age students by those of legal drinking age is a violation of University regulations and may be a violation of local and state laws.

Alcohol may not be served at any University academic or class event.

APPLICABILITY

This policy is applicable to TWU Students, Faculty, Staff, and Guests.
