REGULATION AND PROCEDURE

I. English Language

The University affirms that all courses, with the exception of those designed to be taught in a language other than English, will be taught in the English language.

II. Assessing Faculty Language Competence

- A. The interview process will serve as an initial means of identifying faculty members who may require further assessment. Assessment of faculty takes place through a validated test of English proficiency and personal interviews. The screening of tenure-track faculty members takes place as an organized facet of the TWU interview process, which involves not only screening at the academic component level and a formal, oral, public presentation, but also personal interviews with the college dean and others.

- B. Faculty members who can demonstrate that their primary language is English based on country of origin, academic training, or other credible evidence are understood to be excluded from requirements of Texas Education Code 51.917.
- C. Faculty hired for the first time and/or hired very close to the beginning of classes should be informed in writing that their positions are contingent upon completing the interview and/or testing process, if required.

III. Program Compliance

- A. Each faculty member whose primary language is not English will be required to present a score specified by the Graduate School for the English proficiency of graduate teaching assistants.
- B. Academic components may require additional standards for communication skills for their own faculty.
- C. Any tenure-track faculty who fails to achieve the required score must engage in a specific program of study until they attain the required score.
- D. Lack of proficiency must be remedied within one year.
- E. Any non-tenure-track faculty (e.g., clinical, lecturer, adjunct, Graduate Teaching Assistant, Graduate Assistant) must attain the required score in order to be hired for additional terms of employment.
- F. The University's program for increasing English proficiency of faculty may include English courses recommended by TWU or individual tutoring. The cost of a course or other expenses related to increasing proficiency will be paid by the faculty member lacking proficiency in English.

REVIEW

This policy will remain in effect and published until it is reviewed, updated, or archived. This policy is to be reviewed once every six years.
