

University of California, San Francisco Police Department General Orders

3.21 Recruitment: Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Employer

3.21.1 General Information (Issued: 6/25/07)

The University of California and the UCSF Police Department are committed to the principles of equality and opportunity for all citizens of the community. In accordance with this commitment, the university has adopted policies and procedures aimed at protecting the civil rights of employees.