

I. 1.4.2 Faculty Councils

Chapter 1 - Administration and Organization	Original Effective Date: June 2000
Section: 1.4 Faculty	Date Last Reviewed: March 2012
Responsible Entity: Vice President for Academic, Faculty and Student Affairs	Date Last Revised: March 2012

II. Purpose

This policy establishes the role of faculty councils in the governance of UT Health San Antonio.

III. Scope

This Policy applies institution-wide to all current and prospective members of Faculty Councils.

IV. Policy

A. General Policy

The individual Faculty Councils of the Dental School, the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, the School of Medicine, the School of Health Professions and the School of Nursing shall act as the principal policy-making and governing body on academic matters of each of their respective Schools, subject to the Regents’ Rules and Regulations of The University of Texas System. All policy decisions are subject to the approval of the President of UT Health San Antonio (UTHSA) upon the recommendation of the appropriate Dean.

These faculty groups shall be responsible, within limitations set by the Regents’ Rules and Regulations, for recommending to the President policies with respect to the following:

1. The admission of students and their instruction.
2. Approving the curriculum and establishing standards for academic performance, including measures to be taken in case of academic deficiencies.
3. The promotion and recommendation to the appropriate dean of candidates to be certified for graduation and the receiving of honors.

B. Membership and Bylaws

1.4.2 Faculty Councils

1. Dental School

The Faculty Council of the Dental School shall consist of the Dean, the administrative officers reporting to the Dean, the department Chairs, the two full-time faculty representatives, one from the Basic Sciences departments and one from the Dental Clinical departments, elected annually as set forth in the Bylaws of the Dental School. The Secretary of the Council and the members of the UTHSA Executive Committee may serve as ex-officio members without vote.

2. Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences

The Faculty Council of the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences shall consist of the Dean of the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences (who shall serve as Chair and vote only in the case of ties), the Chairpersons of the Committee on Graduate Studies from each of the doctoral programs, one representative from the collective programs in the School of Health Professions, one representative from the collective programs in dentistry, one representative from the collective programs administered jointly with The University of Texas at Austin, and one representative from any collective programs administered jointly with The University of Texas at San Antonio. Where a program has both Doctoral and Masters components, one voting member represents both components.

Non-voting members will be the Associate Dean(s), the Assistant Dean(s), the Vice President for Academic, Faculty and Student Affairs, and the Registrar. Other non-voting members include the elected President of the Graduate Student Association and a student representative from collective programs administered jointly with The University of Texas at Austin and a student representative from the collective programs administered jointly with The University of Texas at San Antonio.

Non-voting members will also include a faculty representative from each graduate program in the Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences which has been approved by the President of UTHSA and by the Board of Regents of The University of Texas System, and which is pending approval by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. Disapproval of the proposed program by the Coordinating Board will terminate membership of this faculty member on the Council. Terms of office are set forth in the Bylaws of The University of Texas Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences at San Antonio.

3. School of Medicine

The Faculty Council shall consist of the Dean (who shall serve as Chair) and all Chairs of academic departments of the School of Medicine, each with one vote. The Faculty Assembly will elect two voting members of the Council, each to serve a term of one year. These elected members may not represent the same academic department and will be elected at the June meeting of the Faculty Assembly to serve on the Council from September 1 to August 31 of the ensuing academic year. Any voting member may send a departmental representative to vote in his absence. The members of UTHSA
