IV. Policy

This policy applies to all departments of UT Health San Antonio in regards to any late payment interest charges incurred by their project ID.

V. Policy

A. General Policy

On September 1, 1999, the Prompt Payment Law was adopted by the State Legislature. This legislation mandates that all state agencies and institutions of higher education automatically pay interest owed to suppliers for late payments. Previously, the supplier was required to file a claim for late payment interest in order to receive payment.

Statutory interest is mandated starting 30 days from the date goods and services are received, or the date the invoice is received, whichever is later. Interest is calculated at a rate established by the State Comptroller’s Office. Payment of interest applies to the purchase of “goods and services”. Most purchases will fall into the scope of goods and services; however, payrolls, prepayments, and reimbursements are not included.

B. Procedures

It is highly recommended that all invoices received within each department be date stamped to show the date of receipt. If late payment interest is incurred, the interest
