

WEST WINDSOR TOWNSHIP POLICE OFFICE OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The members of the West Windsor Township Police Department are committed to providing law enforcement services that are fair, effective, and impartially applied. It is in the best interests of everyone that your complaint about the performance of an individual officer is resolved fairly and promptly. The West Windsor Township Police Department has formal procedures for investigating your complaint. These procedures ensure fairness and protect the rights of both citizens and law enforcement officers.

- Your complaint will be sent to a superior officer or a specially trained internal affairs officer who will conduct a thorough and objective investigation.
- You might be asked to help in the investigation by giving a detailed statement about what happened or providing other important information.
- All complaints against law enforcement officers are thoroughly investigated.
- You will be kept informed of the status of the complaint, if requested, and its ultimate disposition. A letter will be sent to you with this final disposition.
- If our investigation shows that a crime might have been committed, the county prosecutor will be notified. You might be asked to testify in court.
- If our investigation results in an officer being charged with a violation of department rules, you might be asked to testify in a departmental hearing.
- If our investigation shows that the complaint is unfounded or that the officer acted properly, the matter will be closed.
- All disciplinary hearings shall be closed to the public unless the defendant officer requests an open hearing.

It is unlawful to provide information in this matter which you do not believe to be true.

You may call Lieutenant Mark Lee, the internal affairs investigator, at (609)799-1222, with any additional information or any questions about the case.
