

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

SECTION: General Provisions	PROCEDURE#: 101 - A
TITLE: Process to Adopt, Amend, or Rescind County Policies and Procedures	R & O #: none
	IMPLEMENTS POLICY#: 101
SPONSORING DEPT: County Administrative Office
ADOPTED: 10/13/2025	LAST REVIEWED: 10/13/2025	LAST REVISED: 10/13/2025

PURPOSE: The purpose of this procedure is to provide a process by which new Administrative Policies and Procedures are established, and existing policies and procedures are amended or rescinded.

AUTHORITY: The Washington County Board of Commissioners (Board) may establish rules and regulations to manage the interests and business of the County under section 31 of the Washington County Charter. The Board has delegated authority to the County Administrator to, among other things, adopt, repeal, replace or amend administrative policies and procedures for the efficient and effective operation of all departments. §2.04.100.

The formal fundamental organizational principles of the County are expressed through formally adopted, written policy statements. The policy statements serve to result in organizational alignment and provide rules for public officials on the conduct of County business.

The Washington County Administrative Manual resides on the Washington County internal and external websites and is the official record of County Administrative Policy and serves as a centralized repository for all Administrative Policies and Administrative Procedures.

The Board has delegated authority to the County Administrator to prepare and administer the County Administrative Manual and to approve Administrative Procedures deemed necessary to implement adopted Administrative Policies.

GENERAL POLICY: Administrative Policies establish the rules for the operation of Washington County government. Administrative Procedures specify how the policies will be implemented and who is responsible for policy implementation. Generally, all policies will have an implementing procedure, unless the policy states that no procedure is necessary.

Administrative Procedures are subject to change periodically. It is the direction of the Board that any changes to the Administrative Policies and Administrative Procedures along with the Administrative Manual be reviewed annually by the Board.

PROCEDURE GUIDELINES:

1. Responsibilities:

- 1.1. The County Administrator or their designee is responsible for overseeing the development and maintenance of County Administrative Policies and Administrative Procedures and for maintaining the policies and procedures in the Administrative Manual.
- 1.2. All Administrative Policies and Administrative Procedures must have a departmental sponsor or co-departmental sponsors and an Executive Sponsor. Sponsoring department(s) are responsible for:
