I. FUGITIVES ARRESTED IN ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY THAT ARE WANTED IN ANOTHER STATE (including Washington D.C.)

Whenever an officer develops probable cause to believe that a person is a fugitive wanted by an out of state law enforcement or criminal justice agency, the following procedures will be followed:

- A. The officer will arrest the person, only after receiving a HIT CONFIRMATION through Teletype that the individual is wanted in another state and that they will extradite from the state of Maryland.
- B. The arresting officer will request that a confirmation (TELETYPE) be sent to the jurisdiction in which the prisoner is wanted, notifying them that the subject is in the custody of the Anne Arundel County Police Department. The TELETYPE must include the date and time of the confirmation/arrest, and that the demanding state WILL EXTRADITE from Anne Arundel County.
- C. The officer will transport the prisoner to the Anne Arundel County Central Holding and Processing Center (CHPC). CHPC booking personnel will process the prisoner according to established procedures.
- D. The officer will request Teletype to send a copy of the HIT confirmation TELETYPE to the CHPC, that confirms that the subject is wanted by another state, and that said jurisdiction WILL EXTRADITE (The term WILL EXTRADITE must be stated on the tty.) The officer will complete a DC/CR 30 form (Charge against Fugitive) based on the information supported by the available documentation, i.e., Teletype, copies of warrants, etc., and provide it to the CHPC Booking Officer.

II. FUGITIVES ARRESTED IN ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY THAT ARE WANTED BY FEDERAL AUTHORITIES (not including Washington D.C. Superior Court or Washington D.C District Court warrants.)

Whenever an officer develops probable cause to believe that a person is a fugitive wanted by federal authorities, the following procedures will be followed:

- A. The officer will arrest the person, only after receiving a HIT CONFIRMATION through Teletype that the individual is wanted by federal authorities and that they will extradite from the state of Maryland. (The term WILL EXTRADITE must be stated on the TELETYPE.)

B. The arresting officer will request that a confirmation (TELETYPE) be sent to the jurisdiction in which the prisoner is wanted, notifying them that the subject is in the custody of the Anne Arundel County Police Department. The TELETYPE must include the date and time of the confirmation/arrest and that the federal authorities WILL EXTRADITE from Anne Arundel County. If not already stated in the original TELETYPE, Teletype Operators will request the Federal Agency name and the Federal Officer name/contact information responsible for pick up, date/time of pick-up, and to what facility the prisoner will be ultimately transported to.

C. The officer will transport the prisoner to the Anne Arundel County Central Holding and Processing Center (CHPC). The officer will request Teletype to send a copy of the HIT confirmation TELETYPE to the CHPC that confirms that the subject is wanted by a federal law enforcement agency, and that said agency WILL EXTRADITE (The term WILL EXTRADITE must be stated on the TELETYPE.). Teletype will send a copy of all TELETYPE correspondence regarding the prisoner to the CHPC.

D. Once at the CHPC, the officer will complete a "Request for Temporary Commitment" form, and present it to CHPC booking personnel. CHPC booking personnel will process the prisoner according to established procedures.

III. FUGITIVES ARRESTED IN ANOTHER STATE THAT ARE WANTED IN ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY

A. All extradition proceedings to return a wanted person to Anne Arundel County will be handled by the Fugitive Apprehension Team.

B. All extraditions must be previously authorized by the State's Attorney for Anne Arundel County. Immediately following this authorization, the Fugitive Apprehension Team will contact the jurisdiction holding the wanted person and confirm our intention to extradite. The commander of the Major Crimes Section will ensure that extradition proceedings are initiated and completed according to the standard operating procedures of the Section.

C. Anne Arundel County contracts with Prisoner Transport Service (PTS) for some out of state extraditions. All prisoners transported by PTS will be taken to the CHPC.

IV. PROPONENT UNIT: Major Crimes Section.

V. CANCELLATION: This directive cancels Index Code 1818, dated 06-15-20.
