I. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Child Support Enforcement Program is a joint undertaking involving federal, state, tribal and local cooperative efforts. As our nation's largest employer, the Federal government has an important role in the Child Support Enforcement Program. There are approximately over 400 federal agencies in the country, and these agencies have approximately between 3 to 4 million employees.

Below you will find addresses for income-withholdings purposes for the most used agencies.

However, a full list of federal agencies addresses for income-withholding purposes can be accessed at
