Policy 18.00 Physically or Medically Incompetent R.S. 32:424

Section: 2. Driver's License Laws

Effective Date: 02/27/1992

General:

- Individuals may be subject to suspension, revocation or denial of an operator's license if they do not qualify as specified by Section I, Policy/Procedure Statement #23.0. If they are subject to this type action, the following information is provided:
 - Denials of New Applications
 - All denials of driving privileges of new applicants for medical reasons under the authority of R.S. 32:424 will be assigned a pseudo-number for purposes of future reference.
 - Suspension / Revocation of License
 - If a license holder is subject to suspension or revocation under the authority of R.S. 32:424, said suspension or revocation will begin upon receipt of the license, upon its expiration or upon receipt of an affidavit of lost license from the license holder. (See R.S. 32:414G(1)(a).) Official notices of suspension/revocation must be processed and mailed by the Conviction/medical Processing Unit.
 - Special Examination
 - See Section I, Policy/Procedure Statement #24.0.
 - No Hardship License
 - Since all suspensions and revocations for physically or mentally incompetent licensees will be worked under the provisions of R.S. 32:424, there is no provision for a hardship license to be issued.
 - Methods of Compliance for Reinstatement
 - Satisfactory medical statement(s) or passing of special examination(s) or both.
