Definition:

- Expedited Title: A title that is processed by a public tag agent, at the request of a designated agent, lienholder or owner, and is available for pick up the following business day.

Requirements:

- A completed vehicle application form (DPSMV1799).
- All other documentation required to process a title transaction.
- Expedited Title Request (DPSMV1823), if applicable.

Notes:

- This service is only available at participating public tag agency offices.
- The expedited title will be available for pickup at the public tag agent's office where the expedited title transaction was processed.
- The expedited title will not be released to anyone other than the owner, lienholder or their authorized agent unless a notarized affidavit is provided indicating to whom the title should be released.
- Certificates of titles with a recorded lien will only be released to the lienholder or his authorized agent.
- Certificate of titles returned to the State may either be resent to the customer at no charge or the customer may elect to pay for an expedited title. If the customer elects to receive an expedited title an Expedited Title Request (DPSMV1823) must be completed.

Fees:

- $10.00 - expedited title fee
- All other applicable fees.
