General:

- A registered owner who fails to respond to a violation notice within sixty (60) calendar days after the date of issuance of the violation notice shall not be able to renew their driver's license and/or vehicle registration until all matters regarding the alleged toll violation are disposed of in accordance with law.
- The Department of Transportation and Development will set, then remove all vehicle and driver's license toll violator flags once the registered owner has complied with the law.
- The toll violator flag will prohibit renewing a license or registration until the flag is removed.
 - The flag will not prevent the transfer of a vehicle to a subsequent owner.
