

Join our team and be eligible for exceptional SUNO benefits.

BENEFITS

SUNO Police officers receive competitive starting salaries and a generous package of state benefits, including a tuition waiver for officers wishing to pursue higher education.

Benefits include:

- Starting salary: $32,364 - $57,428 After one year of service, officers receive $6,000/year supplemental pay from the Louisiana Office of Supplemental Pay.
- Choice of health, dental, disability and life insurance plans offered through the State of Louisiana Office of Group Benefits
- Generous vacation, holiday and sick leave
- Free access to SUNO gym facilities 24/7
- Tuition waiver program for studies at SUNO and opportunities for professional development and career advancement. Tuition waiver program is also available for officer’s spouse & dependent children
- Participation in the Louisiana State Employees’ Retirement System (LASERS)

Qualifications, Selection Process & Timeline
Although individuals with minimum qualifications may apply, only those with the most suitable job-related experience, education and qualifications will continue in the selection process. Applicants should visit Louisiana Department of State Civil Service (<https://jobs.civilservice.louisiana.gov/>) to apply for positions within SUNO Police and to check on the latest status of their application.

Applicants must have Civil Service test scores for 9500-LEAPS in order to be considered for this vacancy unless exempted by Civil Service rule or policy. If you do not have a score prior to applying to this posting, it may result in your application not being considered.

SUNO Police Department
6400 Press Drive
Maintenance Building
New Orleans, Louisiana 70126
(504) 286-5290
<http://www.suno.edu/page/campus-police>

#SUNOsaf

#SUNOstrong

Also check us out at www.facebook.com/sunopolice

@sunopolice

In compliance with federal law, including the provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Southern University at New Orleans does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, religion, color, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, or military service in its administration of educational policies, programs, or activities; its admissions policies; scholarship and loan programs; athletic or other University-administered programs; or employment.

Southern University at New Orleans
Police Department

We invite you to join our team of professionals that provide full police services to the SUNO campus community.

Serving with Professionalism and Pride

SUNO Police Department

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The SUNO Police Department may be accepting applications for POLICE OFFICER. Positions are in a training series; level of positions filled and pay above entry will depend on qualifications of candidates selected. Must have a score for the 9500-LEAPS Exam unless currently occupying a Civil Service job in the LEAPS Test Series with permanent status or re-employment eligibility.

DUTIES OF A SUNO POLICE OFFICER

Police officers protect the lives and property of citizens. A SUNO Police Officer's duties and responsibilities can vary from day to day. These duties and responsibilities can often range from highly dangerous and highly physical work to paperwork or desk tasks. Whatever the assignment may be, a police officer is expected to carry out the commands of his supervisors and to enforce the law ethically in the area under his/her jurisdiction.

SUNO Police Officer Duties Include:

- Patrol
- Bicycle Patrol
- Crime Prevention
- Working with the Community
- Victim Assistance
- Policy Enforcement
- Cite, Reprimand & Arrest
- Control Crowds & Traffic
- Investigations
- First Aid
- Responding to Calls
- Testifying

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

One year of experience in law enforcement work.

SUBSTITUTIONS

College training will substitute for the required experience on the basis of thirty semester hours for the year of experience.

NECESSARY SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS

Must have the eighteenth birthday at the time of application.

An applicant who has been convicted of a felony or who is under indictment on a felony charge will be disqualified until relief from the disabilities imposed by state and federal laws is granted.

May be required to possess a valid Louisiana driver's license at the time of appointment.

Required to complete a Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST) course.

For some positions, evidence of POST certification must be submitted at the time of the application.

May be required to qualify annually with a firearm.

For some positions, the applicant must be eligible for bond.

A drug screen will be administered prior to employment.

Creating community partnerships for a safe

SUNO Police Department

is the primary law enforcement agency on property owned and leased by the university. The dedicated men and women of the police department protect and serve the university 24 hours a day, every day. In addition to the Office of the Chief, the police department is comprised of three divisions - Support Services, Investigations and Operations. The police officers who staff these divisions are duly sworn, certified, armed and empowered with the same authority as other local law enforcement officers in the State of Louisiana.